No, this duck hunter isn't sleeping on the job; he is doing some layout shooting. His position gives a good view of the sky and is less likely to frighten off birds than an upright posture which would make the hunter more visible. When ducks move in to the decoys, the hunter pops up and fires. This type of shooting is legal, but sinkboxes—in which the hunter is below water level—are outlawed.

Battling Tecumseh Turns in Fine Performance Against Adrian

It almost happened.

Underdog Tecumseh, playing one of its best games of the year, battled and fought and but for a few lapses, might have bested Adrian.

The Maples scored 13 points in the first period, then were played off their feet the final three quarters before winning 20 to 0.

Adrian received the opening kickoff and marched to the end zone with Ed Mandrell scoring and Bruce Woods running for the extra point.

Tecumseh received and Dick French picked up 18 yards. After several attempts, the Indians fumbled and Adrian got underway again.

A sustained drive ended with Woods going in from the nine. The extra point attempt was stopped.

The Maples were heading toward pay dirt late in the second period, but the Indians held and the intermission came 13 to 0.

☆

TECUMSEH ENTERED the second half with fight and determination.

Coach Bob Breniff's charges battled their way goalward after taking the kickoff.

The Indians had first and goal-to-go, but the Maples just wouldn't budge. The drive ended on fourth down when Yoakum's pass, intended for Ray Miller, fell incomplete.

☆

STILL FIGHTING for a score, the Breniffmen started again. A Yoakum-to-John Aho ate up 27 yards.

Another aerial was picked off by Woods on the four-yard line and the Adrian speedster raced all the way—a 96-yard sprint, one of the longest on the local gridiron this season.

The Adrian Telegram said, "We have seen better passers and better runners than Yoakum, but the 150-pound quarterback is without a doubt the finest ball handler the Maples have faced all year,

Invitations from Paris Come To Late

He had arranged for announcements of the new 1958 Ford to be mailed from Paris, France, to people here.

The announcement not only would have invited people to see the new car, but also would have given them a French stamp for collections.

☆

MR. BUTLER doesn't know what happened to the pre-arranged plans, except that they weren't carried out.

The announcements were shipped to Paris before the middle of October and postal officials there were to mail them in time for car's opening.

Although some of the cards are just now arriving, the automobile dealer wants his friends and customers to know they were not over-looked and that he had planned something special for them again this year.

Accentuate Positive Auxiliary Is Told

A fascinating program presented by Mrs. Mel Zerbi of Ypsilanti entertained the ladies of the Auxiliary of the American Medical Society, District No. 2 Tuesday, November 12.

Mrs. Zerbi, the District Director, presented a program of Role Playing assisted by some of the members including Mrs. Richard Coak and Mrs. Carleton Cook of Tecumseh.

The program accented the negative attitudes sometimes found in the organization and told how to bring out more positive attitudes.

Mrs. Coak and Mrs. Hunter of Adrian were hostesses at the door.

Emphasis was placed on getting the magazine "Today's Health" before the public.

The American Medical Education Foundation was discussed, especially the need for obtaining moneys for the school. Mrs. Coak is the County Chairman of this project.

When you buy eggs the grade indicates quality. Grade A is top quality for frying or cooking in the shell. Grade B eggs are good for scrambling and use in baking.

Mrs. Norm Bailey Named to Council of Extension Clubs

The Lenawee County Extension clubs annual open house was held Saturday in the Madison School in Adrian with about 950 people in attendance.

Plans for this big event were made by the executive council who were:

Mrs. Ward Bettis of Blissfield
Mrs. Grover Swartz of Tipton
Mrs. Hugh Mitchell of Palmyra
Mrs. Virgil Lowery of Holloway

Mrs. Dewey Ries of Blissfiled
Mrs. Miles Root of Morenci
Mrs. Norman Bailey of Tecumseh

Mrs. Cleo Burger of Clayton
Mrs. Fritz Miers of Adrian
Mrs. Robert Delker of Riga

THE MID-CENTURY club and the Home Acres of Adrian were in charge of the tea. There were holiday hints galore. The ladies of Lenawee make good use of their spare time, as shown by their Extension club's display.

All of the Tecumseh clubs were included in the 75 in the county that contributed to the various displays presented. Some of them were gifts for the convalescent child, gifts from the pantry shelf, home-made tree decorations and gift wrappings.

Mrs. Richard Britton of Adrian and Mrs. Sam Mitchell of Holloway were in charge of this part of the activity.

PLEDGED TO HELP DRIVERS IN DISTRESS

They're Cam Twisters

Charles Hand, third.

Prizes were awarded to the participants for driving a carefully mapped route around the Lenawee county area, touching check points along the route.

Clues to the next check point were jumbled, in code, double talk or otherwise disguised so that the contestants had to decipher each one to determine the next check point.

About 10 contestants entered the rally.

They were allowed to cover the route in any possible conveyance or even walk or fly if they so desired.

☆

EACH CONTESTANT started with 100 points and tried to keep as many as possible by reaching each check point on time as well as meeting other stipulations.

A lot of fun was enjoyed by all concerned and another rally is being planned for the spring by the club.

About 23 members belong to this organization.

They are pledged to observe specific rules of road courtesy, one of them being to always stop and help when they find another motorist in distress.

Meetings are now being held at Bud Moreley's Gulf Gas Station on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. The members are grateful to Charles Irelan for his kindness in allowing them to meet in his building the past many months.

Key to Today's Volume Business

Within the last three weeks, The Herald has reported the proposed switch in location for a trio of major Tecumseh businesses.

☆ Kroger announced plans to re-establish west of town.

☆ Wilson Motor Sales will set up in the same general area.

Particularly in the cases of the chain stores, a major consideration was "more parking."

No matter how complete a store might be, no matter how well lighted or staffed, it cannot draw volume trade if there isn't adequate parking nearby.

Right now, an off-street parking plan for downtown Tecumseh is being considered by city council. It would eventually offer more than 500 places for cars in the immediate vicinity of Chicago boulevard.

From all indications, a large share of merchants favor the idea and it has received sustaining support from councilmen.

How much the off-street lots would cost to level and blacktop is at present a matter of conjecture. Whatever the expense would be, it seems to us a good investment.

The spaces probably would be metered, bringing in money which would maintain the areas and eventually help to pay for the initial capital expenditures.

One possibility of financing would be through bonds, just as schools are built.

As it is with any property improvement, the addition of some fine well-kept, off-street parking lots would soon enhance the value of the downtown area.

The Herald applauds the members of the Planning Commission who originated the idea and the off-street committee, appointed by council, which is seeking ways to make the plan a reality.

The sooner the better, as far as we're concerned.

Your Help Is Necessary

The blood program involving donations from Tecumseh and area residents at Herrick Memorial Hospital is lagging.

Donors are needed to replenish the blood supply which is depended upon daily to save lives and speed recovery of patients.

Last week two hospital officials reported the need of donors now . . . donors who will call the hospital and make an appointment . . . donors who will give now and not asked to be put on the stand-by or emergency list.

Stand-by donors are important. Equally and even more important are people willing to give now—today!

During the next few weeks, many local and area organizations will be visited and informed about the need and importance of the blood program.

We are fortunate to have a fine hospital of which the blood program and bank are parts.

We all can do our share by giving a little bit of our time and just one pint of blood now.

Dear Reader: Thank You

Folks at The Herald have been sincerely overwhelmed by the kind comments made about this newspaper.

Our readers remark they find their hometown weekly easy to read, enjoy the large pictures and big volume of local news.

We say, "Thank you, so very much."
And we'd like to add this thought.

We're sure you're finding the advertisements in our newspaper equally as enjoyable as the news and we're sure you gear your shopping accordingly.

So we want to thank the merchants who have shown their confidence in The Herald by placing regular ads in it.

We might ask our readers, when they are shopping from Herald advertisements, to tell the merchant, "I saw your ad in The Herald."

No greater appreciation could be shown —to the advertiser and to your weekly hometown newspaper.

ANOTHER IN AREA CHURCH SERIES

First Britton Building Cost $600

The organization of what is now known as the Britton Congregational Christian Church is recorded thusly.

"After a succession of meetings, which were protracted for nearly four weeks, the Lord graciously pouring out his spirit and reviving his work, in the restoring of a number of back sliders, and the conversion of many precious souls unto God, a church was organized in the Township of Ridgeway, Lenawee County, Michigan, by Elder Samuel Bradshaw. Said church to be known as The First Church of Christ in Ridgeway — Organized this 28th day of February 1849."

The organization took place in "the old block school house" located on the northeast corner of what was then known as La Pleasiant Bay Turnpike, (M 50), and the road known as Hoagland Road.

There were 30 charter members and by 1865 the church had grown to have a membership of 131.

Monthly Fellowship meetings were held by the Church for over 60 years and a faithful record was kept of those meetings.

At the third Fellowship meeting, held June 16, 1865, the church voted to organize a "legal society" in order to erect a meeting house. And forthwith on July 2 the Christian Union Society was organized according to law and officers were elected.

On August 14 a parcel of land, consisting of one acre, lying on the north side of La Pleasiant Bay Turnpike (approximately the present site of the Audcliff Flower Shop) was deeded to the Society by Steven and Abigail Gifford.

WITHIN THE first year a frame meeting house was erected at the cost of $600, and was dedicated on January 27, 1850.

The congregation evidently soon outgrew this structure and on January 3, 1880 the society voted to "build a new church on the same site."

The building of this structure (the present church building) was completed and dedicated November 12, 1880.

However, due to the construction of the Wabash Railroad linking Detroit with Chicago during the years of 1881 and '82, adjutation began for the removal of the church building to the village of Britton which had grown up along the Wabash right-of-way.

This great task of moving a bri.: church a half mile to the new site was accomplished under the energetic and able leadership of Elder E. Mudge, within a period of 13 days, the first meeting of the church held on the present site was September 2, 1893.

DURING ITS 108 years of existance, the church has had 26 pastors, two of them returning for a second period of service.

It came to be known by its present name when the Union Christian Churches united with the Congregational Churches in 1929.

At present it has a membership of 250, and is presently being served by the Reverend O. E. Priest, who is now in the twelfth year of his pastorate with the church.

Use a moderate to low temperature for cooking eggs. Eggs like other protein foods are toughened by high temperature.

If a medium sized turkey is too large for your family and there are no smaller ones available, ask the butcher about a half or quarter of a large turkey. Halves and quarters are being sold now in many stores.

You can buy eggs in six different sizes according to their weight per dozen. All sizes are not on the market at all times during the year. Smaller sizes usually appear in late summer and early fall with larger sizes most common during winter and spring.

Health Study Is Five-Year Plan

Did you know that the Tecumseh Community Health Study is a five-year project?

In other words, what has been done so far is merely the beginning.

Another facet of the undertaking is the plan of a "kindred study," meaning that researchers not only will check health histories of area people, but will trace family lines.

In some instances, there are more than 80 relatives of a single family included, living all over the United States.

Sort of fascinating to be a part of such an effort.

MAKE A WISH

Think of Thanksgiving and you think of turkey. Think of turkey and you're apt to think of that perennial custom of wishing on the wish-bone.

Much of Thanksgiving hasn't changed. But, thanks to trucks, the kind and character of the various foods that make up the typical Thanksgiving dinner have changed — and for the better, of course.

Turkey is still the main dish — but it's tastier and more tender today. Vegetables are fresh or fresh frozen — hence much more flavorous. There's a crisp tossed salad and fresh fruit "out of season." And for dessert — the choice is wide and the quality high.

All this has been made possible largely by the facilities of modern truck transport. Trucks bring you everything you eat, wear or use — and they'll help make the "eatin'est" day in the year a happier one for most Michiganders. Just sit back and make a wish — and trucks will make it true.

Owen Partridge on Committee of United Fund

An industrial visitation committee of the County Citizens committee for the development of the Lenawee County United Chest is now in progress, reported Howard White, Chairman.

"This Committee will personally visit a sampling of industrial leadership throughout the county with the purpose of determining the extent of industrial leadership interest in this program and if they will support it in their own firms" he stated.

It is expected that they shall complete their assignments within the next several weeks.

A meeting of this committee met last evening at my home to determine specific details of these visitation interviews.

David Hendrickson of the CIO County Council is assigned to speak to all the organized labor groups throughout the county, exulaining the operation of a County Chest to them.

"We hope that from these visits," he continued, "a clearer picture can be obtained on how soon, or in the future, this County Chest can be expected to be in operation," states Mr. White.

Here Are Some Tips on Buying Clothing

Consider care when you're buying clothing or home furnishings, suggests Bernetta Kahabka, extension specialist in clothing at Michigan State University.

Remember that construction, fiber content, and fabric finish affect the kind of care required and length of wear that may be expected in "ready-mades."

New man-made fibers are especially designed to lighten your home laundering. Although the fabrics themselves are completely washable not everything made from them can be washed.

☆

THE GARMENT may have linings, interfacings or shoulder pads made from non-washable materials. And sometimes man-made fibers are blended with other fibers that need special handling.

Man-made fibers such as nylon, dacron or orlon, are sentitive to heat, non-absorbent, and spot and stain resistant. These materials also tend to retain heat-set creases but resist wrinkling. They're quick drying and need little ironing if handled properly.

Soil washes out easily if the garment is washed often so soil can't build up. Stains or heavily soiled areas should be pre-treated before washing with a thick paste or detergent and water or concentrated liquid detergent. Rub paste or liquid into the area with a soft brush or sponge. Rinse thoroughly and wash.

☆

CONSIDER construction of the garment and the fabric to decide between machine or hand washing. You may want to wash delicate, light weight fabrics by hand. Firm fabrics in well-made garments can just as well be washed in the machine.

Only a short washing period is needed either in machine or by hand for man-made fibers. Because they're non-absorbent soil washes off quickly.

If you do hand washing it's best not to wring or twist garments or man-made fibers as it may cause wrinkles.

Warm water of about 100 to 110 degrees is suggested for washing man-made fibers. At high temperatures the fabrics become plastic and if wrinkled in this condition wrinkles may become heat set.

It's best to drip dry garments with pleats. If you dry other garments in the dryer use a low temperature, about 160 to 170 degrees, and about one-half the normal load.

AVOID OVERDRYING as wrinkles may become set. Take garments from the dryer as soon as they're dry and smooth them out for the least wrinkles.

Labels on the garment give helps on care. If there are special instructions it's wise to follow them for best results in laundering. You may want to save the labels or have a place to jot down the directions.

'BUSY' IS THE WORD

GI Keeps Hopping

SP3 Robert Marsh of the Dental Clinic of Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Denver, Colorado won the second Stethoscope intercollegiate football contest over a field of 40 by picking 10 out of 12 games correctly.

Specialist Marsh is the son of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh of West Logan street in Tecumseh. He entered the armed services in June of 1956 and has been at the clinic since August of that year.

By winning, Bob gained for himself five free lines of bowling at the post alleys, a ticket to an Air Force Academy game and the title "Football Expert of the Week."

BOB MISSED on the Army-Penn State game an dthe UCLA-Oregon game. These two were missed by many of the pigskin prognosticators in the contest during that week which was filled with football upsets.

"I've been predicting football games for quite a while," said winner Marsh, "but this is the first contest I've ever won. I always look at the team's past record closely before I make a decision."

At present, Bob is working on a contest requiring knowledge of 40 teams who will play 20 games. To win anything at all he will have to predict 18 games out of the 20 correctly.

Besides teaching swimming at the hospital pool to dependents of army personnel, most of whom are children, Bob and a friend have another project that keeps not only their minds, but their arms and legs busy.

THEY HAVE organized a Ski Club of 80 persons and the first meeting was held last weekend in the Arapahoe Basin about 80 miles west of Denver.

Bob and his firend, who is also a specialist third class, give primary ski instruction and dry-land skiing, then when they get to the Arapahoe Basin, another ski instructor assists the whole group.

We will probably hear more about this ambitious young man at a future date.

HEALTH AID—Two children read the Children's Health Bulletin, one of the most popular Christmas Seal health aids used in Lenawee county schools. # Christmas Seals Provide Aids

The health education program of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association plays a vital part in teaching students in Lenawee county good health habits, County School Superintendent Milton C. Porter states.

He praised the work done by the state TB association for schools as "an important aid" in teaching health. Christmas Seals finance the MTA's school program.

"We who are concerned with the education of children appreciate the value of buying Christmas Seals," the county school superintendent said. "Each year the Michigan Tuberculosis Association spends thousands of dollars for health education in schools."

Posters, pamphlets, and Children's Health Bulletin, which is published monthly during the school year, are supplied to schools throughout the state by the TB association.

LAST YEAR, 1,312 pamphlets, 604 posters, and 33,250 Children's Health Bulletins were used in the county. Children's Health Bulletin, which is prepared in three parts for different reading levels, is offered to every school in the county.

Rancher Glen, the guitar-playing health troubadour of the TB association, brought his health message to 2,726 students in the county. In his programs he explained health rules in a program of songs and stories.

Although tuberculosis most often is found among older people, it still strikes children. Last year one out of every 10 persons found to have active TB was a school-age child.

Both general health education and TB education in schools are considered important by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association in preventing the spread of tuberculosis.

REALTY VIEWS

Desperately, a lady wrote to the "Advice Editor" of a large metropolitan paper. Her letter said:

"Dear Abby,

I work hard all day and when I come home at night, the people in the apartment above me have their TV turned up so high I can't get any rest. They are fine people and have been so wonderful to me that I can't say anything to them. But I get so nervous from the noise I think my head is going to burst."

The Editor replied by personal letter, but it must have read something like this:

"Dear Desperate:

Apartment living is frequently frustrating. The only known cure is to buy a home of your own, away from distracting and nerve-wracking influences. In an apartment house, several families are forced to live in close association, yet they frequently have entirely different habits and working hours. The net result is discontent and trouble.

But in a home of your own, you can escape from the distractions of the world. Your home is your castle to regulate as you see fit. You can go and come at will without bothering the neighbors. I'd advise you to put a down payment on your own home."

May we help you find an enjoyable "home of your own?"

THE LONG and SHORT of it

BY TOM RIORDAN

THANKSGIVING WAS NEVER more exciting or enchanting for my brother and sister and me then when we spent it with Aunt Jan and Uncle Del.

That was in the late Twenties and early Thirties, when the Riordans lived in Detroit.

Uncle Del was mom's brother and made his home in Lansing.

The 80-mile drive to the state capitol started early Thanksgiving and took upwards of three hours, sometimes more when road conditions were bad.

We'd pester the daylights out of dad as we passed through every community with "What town is this?", still not really knowing how much farther it was even when we found where we were.

We'd usually arrive about noon.

But the best was yet to come.

Uncle Del, who was a hardware merchant, loved two things — children and toys.

All year long he had to worry about saws and kegs of nails and wash tubs.

The Christms season, which started with Thanksgiving, gave him the opportunity to enjoy his real loves.

Uncle Del talked the stockholders of the store into letting him have the biggest and best Toyland in Lansing.

Each year he would locate some downtown property not in use and rent it from the last week in November until Christmas. During the Depression this was never much of a chore.

One year he had what is now J. C. Penney on Lansing's main drag, another time he leased the old post office, which is now the Lansing police headquarters.

So after that sumptuous Thanksgiving feast prepared by Aunt Jan, Uncle Del would pretend annoyance and announce.

"Well, I'm sorry folks, but I've got some work to do down at Toyland."

Six sets of children's eyes were dancing over his face those of the Riordans and our cousins. After a pause, he'd ask:

"Any of you kids want to come along?"

A wild scramble resulted as six shouting youngsters dashed for coats and boots and hats.

To us, this was Thanksgiving.

For several hours, as Uncle Del made last-minute checks and changes, we children had absolute free run of the place

Upon arrival, we could hardly tear off our wraps fast enough—it seemed to take forever and I doubt if coats ended up anyplace but on the floor immediately inside the door.

Uncle Del would yell not to break anything and six streaks of pent-up youngsters shot off in six different directions.

The girls headed for the dolls and games, my brother and I dashed to sports equipment, trucks, boats.

We were half delirious tearing from one toy to another.

One year, I saw a shiney air rifle. We never had one in our home and I wanted desperately to shoot it — but where?

After a few minutes of aiming and pretend shooting, the temptation was too much. Sneaking upstairs, I found a ladder going to the roof, slipped up it and opened a trap door.

I looked about for a target, spied the flag pole which stretched up from the building's roof about 15 yards. Atop it was a large metal ornament, about the size of a basketball — targets! fire!

If Uncle Del had caught me up to such tricks, he probably would have spanked me from there to Christmas. Luckily he didn't.

Boy, those were the Thanksgivings.

Molester Placed Under Observation

MARDA GENE'S ANIMAL FRIENDS

She Photographs 'Em

This is Marda Gene Duncan, 29-year old young lady who has been confined to her bed much of the past 10 years.

A feeder, with corn and peanuts, is located just outside. Trained on it is Marda Gene's 35mm camera on a tripod, synchronized with an electronic flash.

☆

THE CAMERA, equipped with telephoto lens, is pre-focused. When a little visitor hops on for a bit to eat, Marda Gene can trip the shutter and a fascinating color slide will be the result.

She has dozens and dozens of fetching pictures—of squirrels, blue birds, cardinals, pigeons, sparrows.

"You should have seen the first squirrel I shot," smiles Marda Gene. "When he saw the flash, he did a back somersault off the feeder. I thought for sure that was the end of the hobby."

But the animals soon became accustomed to having their pictures taken, in fact they seem to sense what is happening and rather enjoy the attention.

Certainly, they go for the free meals in a big way.

To snap a picture, Miss Duncan flips it forward. To roll the film and cock the shutter, she moves it in the opposite direction.

As to the camera, Marda Gene, laughingly refers to it as a "hot rod" model. Basically, it is an Argus C-4, but the folks at that company in Ann Arbor made some special adaptions just for Marda Gene.

The rig works perfectly. The bird feeder is idealy located with afternoon sun streaming in from one side. The strobe light's flash fills in the foreground, giving excellent lighting to almost every photo.

PHOTOGRAPHY is just one of Marda Gene's hobbies, though.

She decided she wanted to do a little writing a year ago and one of her first efforts was published in Travel magazine. The article tells how a handicapped person can enjoy travel, relating the trip she and her parents made to Williamsburg, Virginia.

Since then, according to Miss Duncan with a twinkle in her eyes, she has been collecting rejection slips—but she keeps right on trying.

☆

MARDA GENE enjoyed life just like most other teen agers while she attended Tecumseh high school in the mid-Forties.

She was a cheerleader all four years in school and decided to go into physical education. Marda Gene entered Eastern Michigan College at Ypsilanti in 1946 and completed her freshman year.

An automobile accident that spring sent Marda Gene to Ann Arbor University hospital, where she was for six weeks. A broken neck paralyzed her lower body

Lamar Cheever Hits Sales Peak in Car Contest

He's Lamar Cheever of 214 N. Maumee street, since the past four years a member of the Wilson Motor Sales selling team.

Lamar moved 66 units.

The company has provided a raft of prizes and by press time, Lamar hadn't made up his mind exactly what he'd take.

Auto Mishaps Dot Blotter of City Police

Saturday afternoon Joseph Kish of Ridgeway slammed into the rear of an auto driven by Mrs. Clyde Cook of 500 S. Occidental road, when Mrs. Cook stopped along W. Chicago boulevard to let her husband out.

There were no charges against either driver.

Sunday morning about 4, Thomas Neitling of 300 Island drive missed his brake and hit the accelerator instead, smashing a gasoline pump at Bug's Marathon station.

He was charged with failing to have his vehicle under control.

Monday afternoon, cars driven by Chauncey Maupin of 201 Logan street and Hobson Humphries of Adrian collided at the intersection of E. Chicago boulevard and Maumee street.

Mr. Maupin was making a left turn onto N. Maumee as a truck in the opposite direction was turning onto S. Maumee.

The Humphries' auto was passing the truck to the right when the mishap took place. There were no charges.

Former Resident Frank Parrett Dies Thursday

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at the Braun Funeral Home in Adrian for Frank Parrett, who passed away Thursday morning in Maple Lane Manor, where he had made his home since 1952.

Mr. Parrett was born in Continental, Ohio December 25, 1885, the son of Silas and Viola White Parrett.

He had formerly been employed at the Mills Bakery Company in Detroit.

For many years he made his home in the Tecumseh area with his brother, Ervin Parrett, and wife, Nyra. Ervin preceded him in death.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Jack Elwood of Dearborn and Mrs. Clyde Crunely of Detroit; and one brother, Lester also of Detroit.

The Rev. Ivan Hodgson officiated and burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Jaycees Seek Names of Youths for Yule Toys

The response of Tecumseh and area residents in donating toys was overwhelming, so much in fact, that the Jaycees are now trying to increase the list of needy families who would welcome the toys for their children.

Delbert King, Jaycee chairman in charge of collecting and distributing the toys, is asking for the cooperation of local churches in obtaining names of needy children.

☆

NAMES OF FAMILIES who receive the toys will be confidential.

Parents of children who feel that additional toys from the Jaycees would make their children happier Christmas Day are asked to contact Mr. King or Mr. Osburn at their offices.

Toys are still being collected and solicited by the Jaycees.

If the response for names of needy families equals the response for toys, the present collection of toys will not be enough.

Bears and Deer

+ + + + + +

Mrs. Burnell Moon Bags Her Own 'Bear Rug'

Area hunters got away many a shot in the past two weeks — and several had bear and deer to show for it.

He was the only lucky one in a party which included his father, Richard Beadsley of 207 N. Democratic street, his brother-in-law, Harold Meade of 1209 Murray drive, Martin Karth of Ridgeway and Warren Staub of rural Adrian.

Another group, treking in the wastes near Crystak Fall in the Upper Peninsula, bagged a seven-point deer, a 250-pound black bear and three cubs.

Others sharing in the kills were John Palmer, Medford's dad of rural Adrian, Ben and Earl Dentle and Fred Harsh, all of rural Adrian.

Among the happiest of all the sportsmen was a woman — Mrs. Bernell Moon, who with her husband, invaded the U.P.

Mrs. Moon bagged a black bear, the first she has ever shot in 20 years of hunting.

☆

"THIS ONE" says the veteran huntress, "was coming right at me and when it got within about 13 steps of me I fired. Then as it began to paw the earth I fired again three times just to make sure."

When asked if she wasn't frightened she said, "No, not until it was all over and then my knees knocked together."

The couple set up camp in the Sturgeon Swamp, southwest of Munising after first shoveling 14 inches of snow out of the way.

With pine bough beds and plenty of fire wood they were cozy in their tent home. They left Tecumseh November 9 and returned November 25. The bear was shot November 18 in the morning.

Mrs. Moon has shot seven bucks in these years of hunting, beside this bear.

What was B.B. doing? We didn't ask him, but he looked as pleased as his wife.

HER BEAR RUG—After 20 years of hunting, Mrs. Burnell Moon brought down a black bear. "It's going to be my bear rug," she says proudly.

Please Call 543

By error, an incorrect telephone number was listed in last week's story for the "community calendar of coming events." It should have been 543.

Organizations are asked, when planning gatherings, to call and check to learn if there is a conflict.

Hospital Changes Visitors' Entrance

Visitors at Herrick Memorial hospital—except those to see maternity patients—are asked to use the west entrance.

This temporary arrangement will be in force until construction of the new wing is completed, states Ronald Wittrup.

Persons visiting new mothers and infants will continue to use the main entrance.

Mr. Wittrup reminds folks of visiting hours — 2:30 until 4 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m.

100 Are on Hand To Hear McDowell at Patterson PTA

About 100 parents and teachers were present Thursday evening at the Patterson PTA to hear James McDowell speak on "Know Your School System."

He presented several subjects for thought including the necessity or not of a marking system, the retarded child and the gifted child and what to do for them, as well as many other problems that confront the school administration.

Attendance award for the highest percentage of parents present was won by Mrs. Lela Colson's class.

Refreshments were served by the parents of the fourth grades of Mrs. Colson and Mrs. Ina Bailey.

A Christmas program of music will be presented in December in place of the regular PTA meeting.

VFW Sets Rates for Hall Rental

The House committee of the VFW and the Auxiliary met recently and set up a new list of regulations and prices for renting their hall and kitchen.

Anyone wishing to rent the hall for Christmas festivities may call one of the following on the committee: Mrs. James Felton 459-W, Mrs. Harlan Boyes 228-RX during the day, or Harley Slick 585-W, Elsie Filter 244-R or Dean Schneirla 772-M at any time.

Adrian Men Are Handed Charges

Methodist Men Surprise Pastor on Birthday

During a business session, Carlos Jones led a discussion on the Goals and Purposes of Methodist Men.

Rev. Nixon outlined plans for the remodeling of the sanctuary and also suggested other possible projects.

The meeting adjourned and the rest of the evening was spent socially.

4-H Snappy Snippers Dwell on Clothes

The Snappy Snippers 4-H Club, made up of students from Mrs. Crawford's sixth grade, met at the home of Barbara Colgrove Thursday afternoon.

This is the first 4-H clothing club in Tecumseh, though Mrs. Purnell Osburn has for some years led a 4-H group made up of students from her fifth grade class.

The Snippers will hold two meetings per month, one for recreation and one business meeting. Mrs. John Surratt and Mrs. Edgar Buttolph are the sponsors of the club.

Nancy Hooten, president of this young society, presided and led in the opening ceremonies including the pledge to the flag, singing songs and repeating of the club motto.

Dorothy Jean Nettleman received the dues. The members have been earning money, each in her own way, to purchase a 4-H flag and an American flag for the club. Miss Derby gave a talk on Thanksgiving.

"MONEY-AHEAD" CONTEST

Fantastic? It's mighty near unbelievable! But true — just read this:

You can win $500 a month for the rest of your life. You can win a gleaming new "Money-Ahead" '58 Plymouth. You can win other valuable prizes.

It's the Plymouth "Money-Ahead" Contest, where a lifetime of financial security is ripe for the taking. Few things are more substantial than money, and a lot of money is the grand prize. But this is a contest where you can win big without hauling down first prize . . . for 18 sparkling new Plymouths and 450 other valuable prizes will be awarded.

Now here's what you do:

Go into your Plymouth Dealer's and ask him for a contest blank. You don't have to be a mental giant to shoot for the big money. This contest is fun, and it's easy.

You simply unscramble seven easy words and terms, like the one you see in the example to the right. Then add your own short version of why you'd be money ahead in a '58 Plymouth. Believe us, there are plenty of good reasons you can use: Torsion-Aire, Total-Contact Brakes, Silver Dart Style, Push-Button Driving, new Golden Commando engines, etc.

Unscramble or scramble — but you better not amble — to your Plymouth Dealer soon. The fun starts Monday, Nov. 25.

Lets Feed Birds, Writes Marda

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

For an inexpensive, pleasure-packed hobby, bird feeding is hard to beat. The enjoyment it gives far exceeds the cost of some scratch feed and a feeding tray.

These are the two basic requirements for a bird-feeding hobby—they are the foundations upon which a sound program is built.

We feel that the style of feeder is a matter of personal preference.

Big or little, elaborate or simple, homemade or custom built—it is purely a case of which best fits your plans.

☆

ALTHOUGH SCRATCH feed is the main item in many birds' diets, they seem to enjoy a variety in their food, much as we do. Sunflower seeds, corn and suet are practically a "must" on any well-stocked bird feeder.

The lovely scarlet cardinal finds sunflower seeds irrestible; so does the perk little tufted titmouse.

Whole kernels of corn are eaten by the peaceful, easy-going mouring doves, and the suet is, of course, for the woodpeckers and the upside-down nuthatches.

Once a feeding station is established it's fun to experiment with different foods. You'll be surprised at what a variety of things your free-loading bird guests will enjoy.

Peanuts, raisins and apple halves are but three of the many variations of the ordinary bird fare which have proved most successful on our feeder. Such excitement when a new or different food is found!

Whether hanging from a tree limb, placed atop a post or fastened to the house, the important thing is to have the feeder in full view. Theoretically it would seem that a bird feeder should be placed in a quiet and secluded spot.

We however, at one time had a window-type feeder right next to the front door and it proved most successful. This, of course, is not a recommendation for such a location, but it does show the amazing adaptability of birds. They are going to go where there is food.

☆

NEARBY SHRUBS or trees will offer protection for the feeder and perching spots or resting places for the birds.

A word of caution, however—be sure that the protecting trees or shrubs do not become death traps. A low hanging, stout limb or a sturdy upright bush will often be used by a cat as a jumping-off point for devastating raids on the ususpecting.

It would be tragic to entice birds to your feeder, only to have them fall prey to some menacing feline.

Now is definitely the time to start a bird-feeding program. Cold, blustery winter weather is, unfortunately, not far off and as the thermometer drops, the activity on bird feeders will increase.

When ice and snow cover their natural sources of food, the birds depend more and more on our generosity—our hand-outs can often be the difference between life and death.

During the drab bleakness of winter, a bird feeder, ever busy entertaining feathered free-loaders, will be a constant source of pleasure.

In return for their soul-lifting cheerfulness, the birds ask only one thing, a constant and sufficient supply of food.

MARDA GENE

A representative of a hospital in Cincinnati visited the Duncan home shortly after that first year and told the family about braces which could be made for Marda Gene, permitting her to get about in a wheel chair, even ride in a car.

Miss Duncan was taken to the Ohio city in an ambulance, fitted for the braces over a three-month period, returned to Tecumseh riding in the front seat of the family auto.

"It was almost unbelievable," said her father.

She has a recorder and occasianally tapes a TV show.

The Herald imagines that should you care to visit Marda Gene some afternoon or evening to see her slides, she'd be most happy to have you.

STOP!
Lady, you need a HOUSEPOWER —rating!

Stop indulging in that dangerous practice of trying to get by with old-fashioned wiring. Many wiring systems, including those in some new homes, were not designed to adequately handle modern electric appliances.

To compensate for the shortage of electrical outlets, many people are resorting to the use of multiple "Octopus" outlets. Under such conditions appliances work poorly, at best, and often overload the wires so badly that blown fuses result.

A good way to find out about the wiring in your home is to get a HOUSEPOWER RATING. This wiring appraisal will indicate whether you have low HOUSEPOWER . . . what appliances your home can safely and efficiently handle . . . what must be done to get full HOUSEPOWER . . . and what appliances you can add after modernizing your wiring.

Your electrician will make a complete survey of your wiring without charge or obligation and recommend wiring improvements. Have it done now. Be sure you have full HOUSEPOWER.

For your FREE wiring check-up call an ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR or CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY

Is your home one of the 4 out of 5 that is inadequately wired?

Indians '5' Faces Clinton Friday

With little more than two weeks for preparation, Coach Vic Lawson will send his Tecumseh Indians basketball squad against Clinton Friday night.

Action takes place on the Indian floor with the junior varsity squad tipoff at 7 p.m. and the varsity at 8:15.

Coach Lawson has only three lettermen from last winter's quint which won the district tournament. The over-all record was 13 and 7.

This is the sixth season for Coach Lawson, whose squads have won the Southeastern Michigan league title three of his previous five years.

LETTERMEN include Bob O'Neill, John Elliott and Larry Yoakum. All will probably play important roles in this winter's plans.

The varsity squad is rounded out by Dave Elliott, Gerry Greene, Gary Hanna, Robert Hirsch, Robert Marsh, Ray Miller, Max Smith, Richard Stephenson aud Hugh Walters.

O'Neill and Elliott will handle the posts in Coach Lawson's double-pivot offensive.

This year the free-throw lane has been widened to 12 feet—similar to the professional setup.

It's probably the biggest major change in rules since elimination of the center jump after each basket.

Another difference will be strict enforcement of the three-second rule. No offensive player, whether with or without the ball, will be allowed in the foul lane more than the allotted time.

☆

THE RULES committee is still tinkering with the bonus foul shot. The 1957-'58 setup will be an extra toss after the fourth foul has been committed by one team.

In the case of a double foul, no tosses will be awarded.

Tecumseh, which usually has seven or eight home encounters, will have 10 here this season. Originally, the Indians were to perform in both Clinton's and Milan's new gymnasium, but neither are finished yet.

Tecumseh Coach Attends Clinic on Basketball

EAST LANSING—"I've got no height . . . "

"I'm in a tough league . . . ."

An overflow attendance of more than 300 coaches from high schools, colleges and universities in Michigan and surrounding states were given some of the latest coaching techniques in offensive and defensive play.

☆

THE COACHES also got a sneak preview of the 1957-'58 Spartan cage team at an intra-squad game Friday evening, November 22.

H. B. (BeBe) Lee, Kansas State College athletic director, and MSU head coach "Forddy" Anderson headed the clinic faculty.

Attending from Tecumseh was Victor Lawson.

Be Sure To Shop in Tecumseh

You've probably noticed during the past few weeks the sagging shelves and crowded display counters of our Tecumseh stores. It's a sign we can't miss. The Christmas shopping season is here.

We strongly urge you to shop in Tecumseh from the town's merchants, for many reasons.

Shopping in Tecumseh means shopping from your friends and neighbors, shopping in friendly surroundings where you receive personal service, and shopping from those who take an interest in your purchases and gifts.

The local businessmen and women have for months been preparing for the Christmas season. They have selected merchandise which they feel you will be proud to give this Christmas.

"Shop in Tecumseh" is a slogan worth repeating often. Besides the convenience and friendliness of the home stores, you will save money.

Money spent for travel, at parking lots, and meals is money you could use to get "the gift" instead of one priced lower.

ANOTHES IN AREA CHURCH SERIES

Teaches According to Scriptures

By A. JESCHKE, pastor

Grace English Evangelical Lutheran Church is located at Maumee and Shawnee streets with services taking place at 8:30, 9:30 and 10:30 each Sunday.

Sunday School is at 9:30.

Persons having no church home, but informed in Christian doctrine and giving testimony accordingly, are offered membership.

GRACE ENGLISH EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

This church teaches according to the Scriptures that all human beings are sinful and need the Savior, who repeatedly said that He "came not to call the righteous but sinners to repentance," and that forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation, are offered in the Old Testament as well as in the New, but only in Jesus Christ, the promised Messiah, and in no other way.

☆

ACCORDING TO the teachings of this church, no one but God shall establish articles of faith, nothing may be taught in the church without the authority of the Scriptures.

The Scriptures are the only judge, rule, and standard to which, as the criterion, all that is taught shall and must be discerned and judged.

The government of the church is in the hands of the local congregation, which elects its officers, calls its pastors and teachers, transacts its business, determines its policies and is the supreme authority in all matters which are not already determined by the Scriptures.

☆

THE CHURCH is pledged to be and remain consistently Christian and Apostolic.

Its teachings and doctrines are not determined by the clergy, laity, or any authority other than the Scriptures and must conform strictly to the doctrine of Jesus Christ and the Apostles, as set forth in the Bible.

Pastors who have served this congregation are Rev. R. Scheele, Rev. J. DeRuiter and the present pastor.

The addition being constructed at present is expected to be complete in the near future.

THE ADDITION will provide a Sunday School assembly room which will accommodate 200. In the basement there will be partitions, separate heating, a general supply room and rest rooms.

At present, the church has a membership of 300 and about 217 Communicant members. Sunday School has 110 enrolled.

There are active young people and two ladies societies.

The present church was constructed in 1940.

Wilson Cottage Is Broken Into

The cottage of Harold Wilson was one of the five broken into last Thursday evening by three minors who were arrested Friday by Clinton State Police.

The cottages are located on the southeast shore of Evans Lake.

Nothing was taken from the Wilson cottage, but the door casing and lock had been ruined by a wrecking bar of some kind as the prowlers sought to gain entrance.

Drawers had been pulled out and rumaged, but nothing seemed to be removed from the premises.

Scottish Rite Gives Aid to Mental Health

DETROIT—Some 300 Scottish Rite Masons from 11 southeastern Michigan counties received 32nd Degrees recently in Detroit's Masonic Temple.

The 1957 fall class of degree candidates was honored at a reunion banquet attended by more than 1,500 Michigan Masons.

Principal speaker at the banquet was Former Supreme Court Justice George E. Bushnell, who announced Scottish Rite grants totaling $109,480 for research projects seeking causes of mental illness.

Two of the 27 projects covered by the grants are in Michigan.

☆

SCOTTISH RITE of the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, contributed a special $125,000 fund from which the grants were made under the direction of the National Association for Mental Health.

The fund for 1958 research projects brings to $1,335,000 the total Scottish Rite contributions for studying causes and treatment of schizophrenia, the nation's most prevalent mental crippler.

The two Michigan research projects receiving Masonic aid:

Wayne State University, $5,000 for study of available energy in schizophrenics.

REALTY VIEWS

"Our family's growing up," said Joe Canton, "so we are going to have to sell our little house and get a bigger one.

"We only have two bedrooms. And John and Mary are both in school now. They want separate rooms. I don't blame them," he continued, "but you know it was only a few years ago that they looked real cute sleeping together in the same bed."

"We'll find you a good 3 bedroom house," I said. "Is your house in good shape?"

"Reasonably good," Joe said. "Although frankly, it will need a new roof in two or three years, and an outside paint job next year. That's another reason we think the time is right to sell. If we keep it, we are going to have to put money into it. Still it will be quite inadequate."

"I understand," I replied. "We'll get busy."

A short time later, we showed the home to a newly-married couple. The young bride was enthusiastic. And the new groom said he could easily make the repairs himself. So a sale resulted to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Perhaps your family, too, is experiencing "growing pains". If so, let us sell your home and then find you another one more suitable.

Wayne Prexy Urges Changes in Schools

A sweeping re-examination of this country's educational system was proposed recently by Dr. Clarence B. Hilberry, president of Wayne State University.

Dr. Hilberry told a special faculty assembly that the teaching profession must assume a large share of the responsibility for America's complacency and loss of leadership pointed up by Russia's earth satellites.

He suggested major changes in courses taught, methods of teaching and selection of subjects.

"We must encourage greater responsibility in students at every level for their own education," he said, "and give America assurance that our children and grandchildren are going to be given a better education in 1970 than in 1957."

☆

ACCORDING TO Dr. Hilberry, the first step is to encourage better education in the high schools by refusal to teach sub-freshman work in the colleges.

"It is clearly necessary that anyone going on to college must be able to handle the English language, and anyone remotely considering the sciences or engineering should have the foundation work in mathematics and science."

Dr. Hilberry proposed a radical alteration in our present program of 15 to 18 hours of closely directed study, built mostly around lectures, for each semester during the normal four year program.

He suggested that the second semester freshman load of 15 hours ought to be reduced by an hour or two with the student made responsible for this work and rigorously tested in it.

The sophomore year might be reduced to 12 hours of the 15 hour load and a senior might be following his own field except for six hours of formal lecture of discussion.

Ways must also be found to increase wisely the total number of college students by overcoming the fact that more than half of our ablest young people never enter college, according to the president.

President Hilberry called for "radical increases in salaries" in order to attract a "reasonably adequate number of able people" into the teaching profession.

THOROUGH STUDY ot fhe Middle East, Far East and Africa is also necessary, Dr. Hilberry said. He referred to these areas as "where the history of the world of the next 50 years will be written."

"I am suggesting that the United States cannot afford another crop of graduates who are ignorant about the nations on the other side of the earth. Our scientists will profit us little unless we learn our way across the earth as well as around the heavens."

He proposed that students and teachers study abroad in large numbers to learn at first hand the things they have been studying from printed sources.

Post Card Survey Learns Deer Kill

LANSING—Annual post card surveys of deer hunting success will begin early in December with the mailing of questionnaires to some 6,300 special season permit holders.

In this survey — a random sampling of permittees in various areas—hunters will be asked to supply information about their hunting activity and success.

Data obtained in the survey gives a close estimate of the total special season kill and other basic information used in establishing hunting regulations and in other aspects of deer herd management.

Similar surveys of regular season hunters, archery deer hunters and small game hunters will be conducted during the coming months.

Popular Ski Area Boasts 2,800 Feet Tow

Skiers at popular Porcupine Mountains state park in Gogebic county this season will find a new T-bar, double ski tow in operation.

The tow has a capacity of 1,200 rides per hour and runs 2,800 feet up the ski slope.

One side of the double tow will operate as an express to the top, while the other side has an intermediate point where Skiers can get off to use easier slopes.

The Porcupine Mountains ski area has been described as "the best skiing spot in the midwest." Last year, more than 17,000 persons used the area—compared with only 7,000 visitors in 1953.

Addtional information on the winter sports area can be obtained by writing to: Porcupine Mountains State Park, Ontonagon, Michigan.

Farming Is Changing Says MSU Specialist

Farming in a changing and unsettled world will be the basis for this year's series of "barnyard economics" meetings.

Agriculture is changing so fast that tremendous problems are created according to John C. Doneth of Michigan State University.

These changes force farmers to make major decisions which will affect their businesses for years to come.

The "barnyard economics" meeting will be held December 10, at 8 p.m. in the Consumers Power building, 2613 E. Maumee, Adrian.

It is under the joint sponsor ship of Vo-Ag teachers in the area and the Lenawee County Cooperative Extension Service.

"THE PROGRAM will be divided into two main phases," stated Louis G. Hall, Lenawee county agricultural agent.

The first part will concern longer term consideration as to farming conditions between now and 1965. Information based on actual farms will be projected in order to show what the farm business will look like by 1968.

The second phase, the real core of the meeting, will be built around an individual farm business.

Farm business standards will be presented in order to show the wide ranges which exist between farms today.

Factors asscociated with farm organization, soils and crops, livestock investments and expenses will be presented and compared.

Really Her Sister

The mystery picture in last week's issue, identified as Deborah Withrow, was actually her little sister, Joni Withrow, who is now four years old. She was five months at the time the picture was taken.

NEW NUMBERING PROCEDURE

Inter-State Highways System

NEW ROUTE—Michigan motorists will someday be able to follow one highway route number all the way from Sault Ste. Marie to Tampa, Florida, according to Automobile Club of Michigan, Interstate-75 will roughly parallel the present route which covers portions of US-27 and US-10 in Michigan, US-25, US-11 and US-41 in Midwestern and Southern states.

A distinctive new numbering procedure will appear on several of Michigan's major state trunklines as work progresses on the Inter-State Highway system.

One route, running from Sault Ste. Marie through Detroit and Toledo to Tampa, Florida, will be called Interstate-75.

It will roughly parallel the present route from Michigan to Florida, which covers portions of Federal highways 24, 10, 25, 11 and 41. Existing roads will retain Interstate routes 90, 92 and their numbers.

94, roughly paralleling the present US-12, US-16 and US-10, are also in prospect.

☆

The completed roadways must be approved by national highway officials before becoming eligible.

Signs for the new system will be of regular shield shape and have white numerals and letters on fields of red and blue. All new highway numbers will be in two digits.

East-west numbers will be even while north-south numbers will be odd. Present Federal route numbers will not be repeated in the new system.

Portions of Michigan roads, completed or nearly completed, that appear eligible for the Interstate System include the Detroit-Toledo Expressway, the Willow Run, Edsel Ford and John Lodge Expressways and bypasses around several Southern Michigan cities.

Paintings Exhibit Has Pool Sharks

TOLEDO — An exhibit by American artist George Bellows, whose pitcures of boxing matches have never been equalled, will be shown at the Toledo Museum of Art from Sunday, December 1 through December 29.

The exhibit is designed to attract not only the art lover, but people who don't usually attend an art show.

A brilliant interpreter of the American scene, Bellows' work ranged from the tension and violence of the boxing ring to the quiet concentration of a pool player preparing for shot.

'Breakdown' Season Here for Automobiles

Michigan motorists will have approximately 1,816,000 car breakdowns, or half of the yearly total, during the next four months, Automobile Club of Michigan reports.

"Without special precautions, cold weather is the motorists' worse enemy," Robert C. Nisbet, Auto Club road service manager, stated. "Our tests show, however, that the modern car, given proper care, can go through the most severe winter without a single mechanical failure."

Based on previous experience, Nisbet said "can't start" will account for 75 percent of motorists' complaints during the winter months with battery and electrical failure responsible for the great majority of the trouble.

☆

'MOTORISTS SHOULD have all the safety devices and mechanical parts of their cars checked periodically," he stated but listed these three as the most important in keeping your car running dependably in cold weather.

1. Battery—Check for proper liquid level and strength, see that all cells are in good condition and that all connections are clean and tight.

2. Cooling system—Check for sufficient anti-freeze, see that all hoses are in good condition and connections are tight and that the fan belt is properly adjusted.

3. Ignition system — Have points, coil, condenser, spark plugs and ignition wires checked by a competent service man.

Senior Citizens Offer Inspiration To Male Species

Inspiration may be had for the male species of Tecumseh from the active lives led by two senior citizens.

One is John Calhoun, 87, and the other John H. Jones of Onekema, former Lenawee county resident, who recently observed his eighty-third birthday anniversary.

He brings his own grain to the mill and handles it himself like a young fellow.

He was Raisin Township Supervisor for about 16 years some 10 years ago.

MR. JONES enjoys good health, working every day on the farm where he and Mrs. Jones reside with a son, Lyle A. Jones. He assists with cutting wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones observed their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary in October. Mrs. Jones, who is 78 years of age, has been in ill health of late.

Mr. Jones was born November 14, 1874, in Akron, Ohio, and the family lived on the Prairie Side celery farm from 1920-1922 and from 1924-1927.

They have four children, Rev. Lymon Jones of Keloma, British Columbia, Mrs. Laurell A. Hoffman of Tallman, Michigan, Mrs. Henry Kregel of Monroe and Lyle at home, and nine grandchildren.

About Following
A Steady Course . . .

Dependable, unvarying service is expected in our profession. In this effort, we must always improve, and never lessen the quality of our efforts.

It is a steady course we follow, a plan of operation based on sound practices. Every funeral has dignity, care, and our most careful attention —always a little more and a little better than before.

Still Is Time To Mulch Your Shrubs

You've still got time to mulch your shrubs before winter sets in according to L. G. Hall, Lenawee county agricultural agent.

Mulch should be placed under ornamental shrubs and evergreens before the ground freezes. Start at the trunk and go out as far as the reach of the outside branches.

The mulch should have organic matter and some nutrient content. Leaves can be used if they are old and partly decomposed. Fresh leaves tend to pack and cut off the air.

☆

Other satisfactory mulches are ground corn cobs, buckwheat hulls, sawdust (the coarser the better) and wood chips. The material should be two to four inches deep on the ground.

For bulbs and below-ground plants, you should wait until the ground freezes before mulching. Mound up the soil around roses and wait for the ground to freeze.

☆

MULCHING AFTER the ground freezes will stop the shifting of the soil due to freezing and thawing which would damage roots. Do not prune the roses at this time of year.

The benefits of mulch are primarily the reduction of moisture loss by evaporation and runoff, and the organic matter added to the soil.

The mulch can be worked into the soil in the spring.

To maintain the nutrient content of the soil, 3/4 cup of ammonium nitrate or ammonium sulfate should be added to each bushel of mulch worked into the soil.

Would It Pay Off To Feed Cows More?

Did you ever wonder if it woull pay to feed more grain to your milk cows?

Lenawee county associate agricultural agent Clayton C. Ingerson says the best way to find the most profitable level of grain feeding is to make changes in the amount you are feeding each cow and see if the move pays.

The first step is to weigh each cow's milk to see how much she is producing per day at your present level of feeding.

Next, increase the amount of grain to each cow by two to four pounds a day. In about two days you'll see any difference in production.

THEN WEIGH the milk again. If the extra milk each cow is turning out is worth more than the extra grain she is getting, then it is profitable to feed her that much or possibly more.

You may find some cows in your herd that will pay their way with extra grain, while others won't.

Cows that make little or no increase in production when you boost their grain feed may already be getting more grain than they need, says Mr. Ingerson.

YOU CAN CHECK whether cutting the amount of grain these cows get will pay, with the same method in reverse.

Cut the amount of grain you are giving each of them. If the drop in production costs you more than the grain you are saving it would be poor business to cut.

But if the saving in grain is worth more than the drop in production you may as well save the feed, or give it to some other cow that is willing to pay her way.

Storing Soybeans Can Mean Profits To County Farmers

Storing soybeans is a good way for Lenawee county farmers to make some profit without taking much risk this year, says county agricultural agent Louis G. Hall.

He points out that the present harvest season prices in local Michigan areas are below the loan price, which means that the prices of soybeans are pretty certain to come up later in the year.

Mr. Hall warns, however, that growers shouldn't expect the large gains from holding beans that prevailed last year. Last year's big jump was due to the Suez crisis.

LEADS TEEN AGERS—Seventeen-year-old Jane McCann, pretty East Lansing high school senior and Homecoming Queen, has been named chairman of Michigan's Teens Against Polio. Shown visiting James Wood, 36-year-old father of six who is confined to an iron lung with Infantile Paralysis, Jane will lead thousands of teen-agers during the January March of Dimes.

17-Year Old Leading 'Teens Against Polio'

Pretty Jane McCann, 17-year-old East Lansing high school senior, has been named to head Michigan's Teens Against Polio.

As chairman of the thousands of young men and women throughout the state whose goal is putting an end to polio, Jane will promote the use of Salk vaccine and help raise funds during the January March of Dimes.

"Our Teens Against Polio — TAP — group is going to prove that teens can have fun and do a worthwhile community service at the same time," Jane said.

"Very soon we're going to ask for volunteers for specific jobs for which we need Teens during the March of Dimes. These will be jobs that teens enjoy. And they'll be proud to perform them because the result will be aid for polio patients right here in our own county and state."

Jane made her first visit to a polio patient, James Wood, a 36-year old driver and father of six.

Wood, tragically, did not receive vaccine last summer when his family was inoculated. Contracting polio in August, he has been hospitalized since.

Tree Marketing in State Needs Organization

Christmas tree marketing in Michigan needs more organization, according to a new bulletin put out by Michigan State University's forestry department.

Titled, "Resurvey of Christmas Tree Marketing in Michigan," the bulletin is a study on the problems of the Michigan Christmas tree grower and what can be done about them.

It points out that the marketing channels for Christmas trees in Michigan are too complex.

It is hard for producers and dealers to get together, which points up the need for organizations to iron out the kinks in the marketing chain.

The bulletin also goes into the problems of how to select the proper species of trees to grow, how to compete with trees imported from other areas, and the importance of quality in tree production.

Copies of "Resurvey of Christmas Tree Marekting in Michigan" are available free of charge from your county cooperative extension service office located at courthouse in Adrian.

Spraying Lawn With Fungicides Will Prevent Mold

Snow mold is a white cottony growth that appears on the grass during late fall, winter and early spring. As leaves are killed, they turn brown and frequently mat together.

Snow mold fungus thrives under the cool moist conditions of melting snow and that it is commonly found in this part of the country.

In addition to spraying, providing adequate drainage, avoiding the use of notrogenous fertilizers late in the fall and keeping all trash off the lawn so it will dry quickly in the spring will help control the disease.

On lawns that were infested with snow mold in previous seasons, several applications of mercury fungicides during the winter may be necessary to keep the disease down.

The opportunity for every person to give, who has not already given to this Christian Overseas Program, is still open.

Your contribution, in the spirit of Thanksgiving, can be mailed directly to Willis Moore, courthouse, Adrian.

A German Shepherd dog named Rolf has made a career of finding lost objects on the Danish island of Funen, reports the December Reader's Digest. In the past seven years, Rolf, aided by his master, Svend Anderson, has recovered almost $400,000 worth of lost watches, jewelry, tools, currency and other valuables. His master merely repeats several times the name of the thing Rolf is to find, leads him to the area and turns him loose. Anderson thinks Rolf does it by smelling out whatever does not match the other scents in the area.

THE LONG and SHORT of it

BY TOM RIORDAN

A COUPLE OF ISSUES AGO we carried a story which ran under this headline:

23-YEAR OLD
MOLESTS CHILD

In the piece, the accused was referred to as a "youth."

This prompted a letter, and among other things the correspondent said:

"I do not wish to criticize your writing, but while talking to a few friends of my own age, I was discussing with them just how young a person can be and still be called a 'youth.'

"We feel that when you used the word 'youth' in that article it put a thorn in our side, for too many adults in town feel that we can do no right.

"We believe that when one reaches his twenty-first birthday he is old enough to be called an adult and not a 'youth.'

"When you used the word 'youth' it gave many adults the impresion that we are nothing but trouble.

"So we feel that in the future when you refer to someone in his early twenties, he should be called an adult."

The writer has a definite point and just goes to show how ancient we oldsters are getting.

As the saying goes, "Gee, those young people in school are sure a lot younger looking than when I was there."

Seriously, we realize that the label of "no good" is often placed on our teen agers.

Adults get pretty impatient when they think the younger generation is not shaping up to their standards.

In all likelihood, the standard older folks go by now is much higher than the one many operated under when in their teens.

It might be a good thing if this writer dipped into the teen-age area to round off this week's offering.

I'm convinced that many of the so-called and actual problems our junior citizens find themselves immeshed in, can be traced directly to their parents.

On a recent Sunday, a Tecumseh clergyman spoke to his congregation on courting among teens. A major point was that parents should open their homes to the children and their friends.

That makes a lot of sense.

When the Male Animal doesn't get the natural attention he desires, he'll often do something different or unusual to capture a bit of limelight.

All of this probably would never happen if the parents displayed a little love for the kids. They don't have to spend a dime to purchase expensive gifts either.

Take any youth in trouble and dollars-to-donuts when you trace the boy or girl's history you'll find that he or she wasn't accepted as a member of the family group.

The reasons for this are legion. But many times, the mother and father just hadn't shown real love for the child—tempered with fair and effective discipline.

"I'm proud of you."
"You're beautiful."
"How kind you are."
"It's more fun if you are here."

Wouldn't these work wonders, if sincerely said, to the teen age son or daughter?

Letters to Santa

The people in the office are happy to do this service for the children of the city and are convinced that Santa will be glad to hear from his friends early this Christmas season.

Chest Votes $500 for Bleachers

Representatives of the Tecumseh Service Club and the Wolverine Council of the Boy Scouts were present to discuss further the work of their organizations.

Ed Nelson reported that $3,500 was needed to pay the balance of the indebtedness on the bleachers.

After the board of education and the city make additional payments, about $800 will be needed from some source.

The board, following much discussion, voted to pay $500 out of the reserve fund toward the cost of the bleachers. However, more is still needed.

Vern Manwaring, chairman of the drive for community funds, reported net proceeds at this date of $13,172.42.

He anticipates that a sufficient amount will be received to bring the total to $13,717, which is the 1957 quota.

Anyone who failed to contribute during the drive or failed to be contacted may leave his money with Vern or Merlyn Downing at the United Savings Bank.

The Board appreciates the work of all who helped in any way on the drive.

Wiley F. McCann, 57, 212 N. Maiden Lane, and David M. Finnegan, 18, of 9 Occidental highway, collided Sunday at the intersection of Evans street and Shawnee.

☆

MR. MC CANN was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Police estimated damages to McCann's car at $750 and to Finnegan's, $550.

Mary Lou Barrett, 21, of rural Tecumseh, was charged with failure to have her car under control after she struck the rear of a car driven by Robert B. Patton, 53, Walnut Grove, N. C.

The accident occurred on W. Chicago boulevard.

In 1947, he became a consultant to the Atomic Energy Commission.

He served as a lieutenant in the Signal Corps during World War I, then became assistant physicist with the National Bureau of Standards. In World War II, he served as a member of the National Defense Research Committee.

License Plates Can Be Switched to Your New Car

A recent law enacted by the state legislature enables automobile owners to transfer their license tags from one car to another or surrender the plates to the state.

Tags stayed with the car in past.

A $5 additional transfer fee is charged for failing to transfer title within 10 days.

Another change affects plates for pickups.

The small trucks not weighing over 4,000 pounds will be charged 50c per 100 pounds instead of 70c to 2,500 pounds and 90c to 4,000 pounds.

Fire Destroys Country Home By Ridgeway

A charming old brick home, about a mile and a half north of Ridgeway on Ridge highway succumbed to fire Monday afternoon despite efforts from four fire departments.

The large two-story brick house was gutted, leaving only skeleton walls and charred beams remaining.

The loss is estimated over $15,000.

Firemen responded from all directions shortly after 3. Tecumseh, Britton, Holloway and Clinton departments responded, bringing trucks and tankers.

☆

THE TECUMSEH fire department took its new 600-gallon tanker and emergency wagon, leaving 3 o'clock when Britton police radioed police here.

The firemen returned to the station at 6:20—more than three hours later.

The house was divided into two apartments.

Mrs. Bruce Corley, who occupied one with her husband, first noticed smoke and notified the owner and ocupant of the other apartment, James Squires, who was in a barn working just north of the house.

He attempted to enter the basement, but was driven back by smoke. He then called the Britton fire department.

☆

FLAMES APPARENTLY originated in the basement, burning up through the house to the attic, where intense pressure built up.

Fire and smoke shot through the slate roof, tumbling it to the basement.

The loss, including practically all household furniture, appliances and clothing, was partially covered by insurance.

Temporary Bridge Is Underway

Tecumseh's old-fashioned, high truss bridge over Red Mill dam will be only a memory in about five weeks.

That's about how long it will take to complete a temporary span next to the present bridge.

PICTURE ON PAGE 4

Once the wood-piling structure --with 21 feet of roadway, plus one walkway--is completed, the old bridge will be demolished.

☆

IN ITS PLACE will go a sleek span offering 26 feet of road and sidewalks along both sides, each four feet in width.

Sub-structure work will be completed this winter with steel work starting in April. The new bridge's deck should be installed by June.

MRS. HAROLD ROBERT RHORA

Julie Anne Crawford Wed to Harold Rhoda Saturday

Julie Anne Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred J. Crawford of 707 Outer Drive, and Harold Robert Rhora, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rhora of Britton, were married Saturday in St. Elizabeth's Church.

Rev. Thomas Collins performed the ceremony at 1 p.m. Mrs. Ben Hammack presided at the organ and Wallace Whiting sang.

The altar vases of the church were filled with white mums, red carnations and white pompons.

The fitted bodice was made from hand-clipped rose point lace and three panels of lace extended down the front with a cascade of alternating flounces, lace and tulle in the back.

☆

A PLEATED CAP of nylon tulle embroidered with seed pearls and irridescent sequins held the finger tip veil in place and she wore a gold cross, the gift of the groom.

Jane Crawford was her sister's maid of honor, wearing a gown of Christmas red velvet fashioned with a scoop neck line.

Mrs. Edward Bock of Britton and Mary Pat McCann of Tecumseh were the bridesmaids, wearing identical gowns the same as the maid of honor.

Little Lu Ann Rhora, sister of the groom, was the flower girl wearing a floor length gown of tulle over lace with lace mitts and a tulle headband trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a muff the same as the others with a miniature floral arrangement.

Thomas Bruce was the best man and the ushers were Jerry Rhora and Ronnie Croll, all of Britton.

☆

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Crawford wore a gown of emerald green satin with a full gored skirt and short fitted jacket with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Rhora wore a tiered lace sheath of peacock blue with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. The grandmothers each wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony at Tecumseh Country Club. The unusual and striking floral decorations carried out the red and white theme of the gowns of the bridal party.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Connair were hosts at the church and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kaiser and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rhora were hosts for the reception.

The newly-married couple took a short trip to Madison, Wisconson and will make their home on Centennial Road, south west of Britton.

Post Office Hours for Christmas Rush

In order to expedite the handling of mail, the post office again will hang postal sacks in its lobby and employ additional city carriers.

Mr. Metcalf says the sacks will be in the lobby about December 10.

On Saturday, December 14, the post office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and on December 15, Sunday, the post office will be open from 2 to 5 p.m.

The local postmaster hopes everyone takes advantage of the hours for buying stamps and mailings. He urges complete addresses on mail, including return addresses.

The Christmas rush started late this year, probably due to Thanksgiving being late in November.

There are five days less time between Christmas and Thanksgiving this year than in 1956.

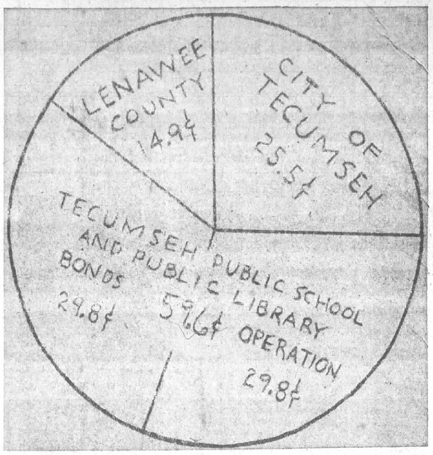
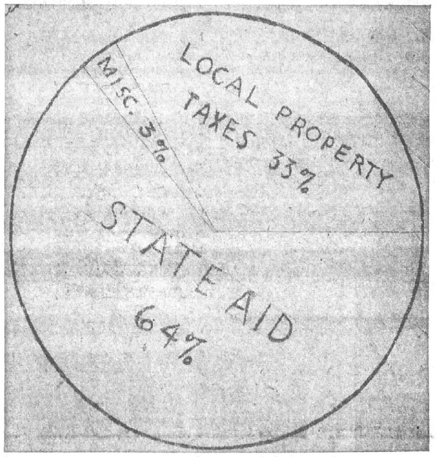
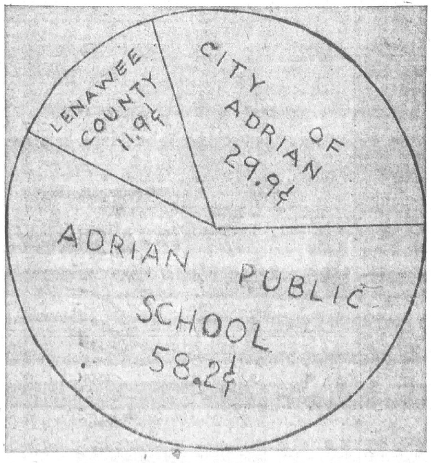
School Taxes Up— But Board Keeps Promise—McDowell



HOW YOUR TAX DOLLAR IS SPENT



SOURCES OF SCHOOL INCOME



ADRIAN'S TAX DOLLAR SPENT

BY JAMES MC DOWELL

Tecumseh Superintendent of Schools

School taxes for 1957 are 38.7% higher than in 1956 but still 16.3% less than in 1955, thus keeping the promise made by the Board of Education before the election last spring.

Quoting from the brochure printed by the Board and distributed to all tax payers before the election of March 4, 1957:

> "In the 1948 and 1952 bond issues the tax rate was 13 mills or $13 per thousand of local assessed evaluation. The Board expects to maintain a lower rate on local equalized evaluation for the district than on the two previous issues beginning with the bonding period in 1958."

The Board has been able to do this even for 1957 taxes, a year in advance of the expectation of the board, for the bond rate this year is 11.68 mills or $11.68 per thousand of local assessed evaluation, which is less than the 13 mills or $13 per thousand mentioned above.

☆

COUNTY TAXES HAVE ALSO BEEN INCREASED by 38.7%, so taxpayers whose evaluations have not been increased this year will pay 38.7% more than in 1956.

The major portion of school tax increase is for bonds, $108,000 being the interest on the 1958 bond issue and $146,008.73 on the 1952 Bond Issue for a total of $254,008.73.

Starting with 1958 the levy for bonds must be not less than $214,500 which is considerably less than for this year since the 1952 bond issue will be paid completely with the collection of the 1957 taxes. The first payment of principal on the new bonds is not due until after the collection of the 1958 taxes.

☆

AT THE TIME the city engaged the Clemenceau Company to reassess the property within the corporation, it was reported that the evaluations on one-third of the property were increased, one-third remained the same, and one-third was reduced.

Therefore, two-thirds of the property owners should be paying at least 16.3% less school tax than in 1955.

> School tax rates were cut $11.07 per thousand in 1956, due to the increase in the growth of the district and the reassessment program, and are actually, for 1957, still $4.54 per thousand lower than rates in 1955.

The Board of Education prepared a letter for insertion with each of the tax notices within the city and whereas the basic facts are true, the local rate in the several townships of our district vary.

All taxpayers within the district pay the same millage, based on state equalized exaluations, and therefore pay their fair share of the total cost of operating the schools and the county.

The rates are 8 mills for the operation of the schools and public library and 8 mills for bonds making a total of 16 mills, based on state equalized evaluations.

☆

THESE PIE-SHAPED GRAPHS do not indicate whether or not the amount you pay in taxes has been increased or decreased, but merely show the portion of each of your tax dollars that is used for specific purposes.

You will note that for 1957, the proportion spent for school bonds is much greater than in 1956 due to the $108,000 interest due on the 1957 bonds, voted last spring.

The operation portion for the schools and public library has been decreased in an effort to partially balance off the increase in the bond tax.

The county portion this year has increased and the city portion decreased since the county millage increased to 5.84 mills local, whereas the city rate remained 10 mills local.

ANOTHER IN AREA CHURCH SERIES

90 Years of Service to Ridgeway

By MRS. MARIAN STONE

In 1835, a Methodist class was organized at Ridgeway in the home of Joseph Edmundson, with Joshua Waring as class leader.

This group met at the members' homes or in the log schoolhouse for a time, having a preacher about twice a month.

In 1837, the Ridgeway Methodist Church was organized and on November 13, 1837 a lot was bought on which to build a church.

The deed was made from Dan Miller and wife Elizabeth, to the trustees of the church—James Wheeler, Joseph Edmundson, James Johnson, Joshua Waring and Gabriel Smith.

☆

THE LOT was east of the school and on the north side of La Plaisance Turnpike, containing amout 1/4 acre of land. The sum paid was $60.

In the fall of 1845, a frame building was completed, it being 28 by 42 feet.

This structure is still standing, used later as a house and then combined with the former Dutch Reformed Church building to make the present place of business at this location.

In 1866, the time seemed ripe to build a larger church at Ridgeway.

There had been a big revival in this area, there were the West class, the South class, Lake Ridge class and a lively class in the English Settlement southeast, a Britton class and the South Macon Methodist Church had sold its church to the Dutch Reformed and these all wished to join in building a large brick church with a cupola and bell.

Christopher Barrett and Simeon Davidson each subscribed $4,000 to this new church..

In the Fall of 1866, the Trustees accepted the offer of Christopher Barrett of a lot to build on. This was a short way south of the main corner in Ridgeway. Before winter set in the foundation was prepared.

IN THE SPRING of 1867 the building was started. Cyrus Hoagland was in charge.

Simeon Davidson and Christopher Barrett had been out soliciting funds, Rev. Thomas Lupton's brick yard was busy making brick, big timbers were cut and trimed, donated teams and wagons were drawing materials and the women were busy in the Mite Society having oyster suppers, Maple sugar festivals and such affairs to raise money for an organ and furniture for the new church.

Rev. Ira Donelson was the pastor in charge.

Other trustees were William H. Osborne and J. L. Remington of the Macon Church, Charles Underwood, W. W. Sanford, John Pattison, George Boss, James Freer, Richard Cadmus.

The first story was built of brick, four courses thick, second story three courses.

It was in Gothic design, being 36 by 78 feet plus the organ loft.

The first story has a vestibule and stairways, Sunday School Room, four small class rooms, kitchen, pastor's study and furnace room.

☆

THE SECOND story has a large sanctuary which will seat 333 and a gallery to seat 50 more.

The cost was $18,000.

It was dedicated in April 1868.

The builder, Cyrus Hoagland had died February 29, and his was the last funeral held in the old church. The seats were in place in the new building, but the varnish was not dry.

Plans for heating this large edifice were quite elaborate. There were two large furnaces and two smaller ones with registers to the upper story. It was lighted with kerosene lamps, large chandeliers and side lamps.

In 1872, members bought 34 square rods at the back of the church where they built sheds for the horses and buggies.

In 1882 the pipe organ was installed.

Down through the years many things have been done to improve and modernize the facilities and keep this church in constant use as a place of worship.

In August 1942, the seventy-fifth anniversary was celebrated when a week of meetings was climaxed by a banquet.

Albert B. Johns was pastor and Julia Gilmore was toastmistress.

In April of this year this building had seen 90 years of service. Down through the years the founders worked and worshipped here. Their names are all gone from the rolls, but are remembered with love and reverence. They laid the foundation of brotherly love and worship of the one true God.

It is our privilege to carry on the work they started that Ridgeway may be a God-fearing and God-worshiping community.

Indian Quintet Off to Hillsdale for Friday Clash

Not A Now-and-Then Item

However, there has been some discussion on scattered fronts, so the topic is not entirely dormant.

We surely hope it wouldn't be as one veteran merchant suggests. He said conditions would have to dip drastically before business folks would band together — and then in what might seem to be a last-ditch effort to bring back some semblance of normal times to the town.

First of all, some sort of association of merchants is needed in every community, large and small, to meet every-day problems and stage usual promotions.

Having such a group is as vital as buying fire insurance, advertising wares, keeping places of business clean and inviting.

It's definitely not a now-and-then item. Over the years, the work of such a group will more than pay for itself in a more attractive and inviting city.

Don't take our word for it—search out areas with such groups. Delve into the accomplishments of towns the size of Tecumseh with Chamber-type groups.

Right now, Tecumseh has an A-1 building with 15,000 square feet, ideal for another industry. We refer to the former Admiral layout.

With some concerted promotion, we might locate a firm looking for such facilities, happy to move to Tecumseh. It could add 30, 50, maybe 100 jobs.

Wouldn't that be a welcome shot in the arm to our economy?

It has happened before in other progressive cities and could take place in Tecumseh.

A Lesson for Later Life

Football gear had hardly been stowed away and the basketballs were being bounced furiously on the hardwood at Tecumseh high.

The hoop season has gotten underway so quickly we scarcely had an opportunity to wish Coach Vic Lawson and his charges bon voyage along the treacherous course of another prep year.

Vic has enjoyed unusual success in his five previous campaigns as Indian head man, winning three league titles and last winter leading his charges to a district championship.

Coaching is a fascinating business. Basically, it is a teaching job, mixed up with the task of evaluating skills and desires of young men.

The first requisite for coaching is a deep-rooted willingness to help young people. The coach must have a good working knowledge of the game he teaches.

He must understand the system, be able to explain why something should be done, give the theory behind any particular bit of strategy.

As he watches his athletes under the pressure of competition, the coach must quickly decide who really wants to play, who is going along for the glory. With the latter, he must toil quietly to bring about a change in attitude.

Above all else, the coach must carefully spell out the lesson that "the team's the thing." Only by sacrificing personal ambitions in favor of the group objective will a youngster become a great athlete.

Occasionally, this attitude comes naturally, more often it has to be instilled into young men by the ever-patient coaches.

If this all-important lesson is deeply etched upon the character of the sports participant in high school, it will serve him well in later life.

Will Add Life to Tractor Engine

Fast engine warm-ups this winter will add life to your tractor, says Louis G. Hall, Lenawee county agricultural agent.

Protect tractor from winter winds and use recommended cold weather thermostat in cooling system. A cover over radiator will help tractor warm up faster.

AT A 40 DEGREE F. operating temperature cylinder wall wear is almost 30 times more than at an 180 degree F. operating temperature.

Fuel consumption at the 40 degree temperature is about 36% higher than at the higher temperature. An engine running at 180 degrees will develop about 13% more horsepower than at the lower operating temperature.

Mr. Hall says it's also a good idea to organize chores so the tractor won't have to be started and stopped several times a day.

Said bonds will be dated 15 January 1958, will be coupon bonds in the denomination of $2,000. each, will be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 15, both inclusive, and will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding 4½ per cent per annum, payable on 15 July 1958 and thereafter semi-annually on each January 15 and July 15. Each bid shall state the annual interest rate or rates upon which it is submitted, expressed in multiples of ¼ of 1 per cent. The interest rate for each coupon period on any one bond shall be at the rate only. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said Bonds will mature serially on the 15th day of July in each year commencing 15 July 1959 and ending 15 July 1973. Bonds are subject to redemption by the City prior to maturity, in inverse numerical order, or any one or more interest payment dates on and after 15 July 1959 at par and accrued interest plus a premium on each Bond in accordance with the following schedule, to-wit:

$30.00 if called to be redeemed on or after 15 July 1959 but prior to 15 July 1961.

Notice of redemption shall be published not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in the Michigan Investor and in the Tecumseh Herald. Both principal and interest will be payable at such bank or trust company as shall be designated by the original purchaser of the Bonds.

The principal and interest on the said Bonds are payable primarily from the proceeds of revenues derived from State collected taxes to be returned to the City for major street purposes pursuant to law. The full faith and credit of the City is also pledged for the prompt payment of said principal and interest when due.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the Bonds from __________ to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The Bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the City. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the Bonds or at a price less than their par value, will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $3,000 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Clerk of the City must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the Bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of the purchaser's attorney, approving the legality of the Bonds, the same to be procured at purchaser's expense. The cost of the printing of the Bonds will be paid by the City. Bonds will be delivered at Tecumseh, Michigan.

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

Many Tecumseh parents have probably heard their teenagers say, "I'm going down to the Teen Club."

Most of them have a general idea of what it is.

But how many of them really know its purpose or how much good it does for the community and the teenagers?

What is the Teen Club?

The Teen Club was started in 1952 by members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, who arranged to let the Teen Club have the Sage Hall rent-free.

It is a place where kids from 13 to 19 can go to enjoy themselves on weekend nights.

Eventually it is hoped that it can also be opened after school. That will have to wait until basic improvements are made, and the club is able to cope with it financially.

There are over 200 members who now have cards. While there are members in the junior high and some, who are out of high school, all elections, etc., are held at the high school.

The dues are a dollar a year. Having a card means reduced rates at all club parties and dances.

☆

IN THE PLANNING stage for this year are:

Six dances with bands.
Scavenger hunt.
Picnic.
Work day.
Car wash.
Bake sale.

The last three are to raise money for running expenses.

Past activities include the halloween dance, the Turkey Trot, and two years ago, Peanuts for Polio. This drive raised over $100 for the March of Dimes.

The Teen Club is run by the officers and eight elected committees. Jon Weakly is president, Greg Mason, vice president, Diane Fox, secretary, and Doris Oliphant, treasurer.

Various committees are refreshments and clean-up, chaperones, advertising, planning, tickets, decorations, improvements, and membership. Each club member serves on one of these comittees.

The Wigwam in the Sage building shows 100% improvement over last year. Most of it has been repainted. When the murals are finished it will really begin to look sharp.

After that the big problem will be to get it furnished. The club has five couches, a couple of chairs, and a TV-radio-phonograph combination.

But as large as the Sage Hall is, that amount isnt enough. Sometime in the future the club hopes to slipcover the furniture, but....

IF ANYONE knows of card tables,: curtains, a hot plate, end tables of any kind, floor lamps, an old ice box and possibly some more couches for sale, cheap, please let someone at the club know!

Mr. Breniff is the clubs adviser for the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A good crowd turned out for the dance Friday night after our basketball victory. The Turkey Trot Saturday night was a success, too.

The Bake Sale is Saturday at Baldwin Hardware. This is to raise money for musical arrangements, (piano tunning, etc.). There will be a Glenn Miller Night dance that evening.

The Teen Club is a good thing for Tecumseh teenagers now and it wil be even better with parents behind it.

☆

JUNIOR NOTES

By Arthur J. Collingsworth

Physical examinations will be given to boys going out for junior high basketball Monday afternoon, for boys who have not already had them.

The basketball practice will begin Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Gross will act as the junior high basketball coach.

THERE WAS a junior high dance after the basketball game last Friday night at the Baptist Youth Hall.

Refreshments of coke and potato chips were served and the admission was 25c.

The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dahlke and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Bishop.

☆

MRS. JANE LAMASTER of Tecumseh shall take the place of junior high mathematics and social studies teacher which was formerly held by the late Alice Hopkins.

Mrs. LaMasters attended the University of Indiana.

Raynor Kerrs Celebrate Their 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Kerr celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary Sunday by entertaining 12 guests for dinner in the Regent dining room at Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Helms, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Sebring and children and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Jr. and sons enjoyed the celebration with the Kerrs.

To the music of "The Anniversary Waltz' a lovely decorated cake was brought in, the gift of the Helms.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Tecumseh high senior play, entitled "The Torchbearers" will be presented at the Central School Auditorium at 8 p.m. December 13 and 14. It promises to be most entertaining. Watch for more about it in next week's Herald.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

INTRODUCES RCA — E. S. Oyer, who has been in television repair work here since 1948, will introduce RCA-Victor to the Tecumseh area with an open house at his new sales room this Saturday and Sunday. His place is located on N. Evans street, just north of the VFW hall. Folks are invited to visit Oyer's from 4 until 9 Saturday and 2 until 9 Sunday. Free coffee and donuts will be served guests.

Baptist Youngsters Schedule 3 Parties for Christmas Season

Christmas parties for the primary department of the Baptist Church School were scheduled at a meeting Monday evening in the Youth House.

Classes taught by Mrs. Harold Davidson, Mrs. Lillian Fielder and Mrs. Francis Packard will have their party December 18 from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Youth House.

The younger children, in classes taught by Mrs. Arthur Bowser, Mrs. Calvin Rickard, Mrs. Glen Griewahn, Mrs. Bernard Fero and Mrs. Thomas Brooks will have their party Thursday, December 19, in the same place rrom 4 to 6 p.m.

The White Christmas service for the entire group will be Sunday morning, December 15.

☆

CHILDREN ARE asked to bring gifts of food or toys for needy families.

Many in the area could use some help this year to make the birthday of Christ a happier celebration in their homes.

It was also decided to have a Christmas Sing during the Sunday School hour December 22, when all parents and the Junior Department have been invited to join the Primary from 10 until 11 a.m.

A flannelgraph story, in keeping with the season, will be presented by Mrs. Francis Packard during the hour.

The Junior Department of the Church School will have a Christmas Party December 15 in the Youth House at 5:45 p.m. and will be dismissed in time for youngsters to attend the musical program presented by the two choirs of the church at 7:30 p.m.

Pythian Sisters To Elect Officers

The Josephine H. Hall Temple No. 49 met Wednesday evening in the Pythian Hall.

Mrs. Robert Wood, committee woman, reported on the Brownie Troop sponsored by the Temple and members voted to furnish refreshments for the Brownie Christmas tea for the Brownies and their mothers.

The Sisters accepted an invitation from the Knights to attend a family potluck dinner to be held December 7 at 6:30 p.m.

Those attending are to bring a dish to pass and their own table service.

Next meeting will be December 11 when officers for the coming year will be elected.

B-58 BUICK

First Big Car that's light on its feet
—and light on your budget too!

In your first mile of driving, you discover the first big car in history that really is nimble, easy to handle, light on its feet.

You boss a B-12000 engine. You command a Flight Pitch Dynaflow.* You switch the pitch a million ways for performance that's next to perfection.

But that's nothing to the discovery you make about this '58 Buick when you get back to the showroom.

You learn you can own this 1958 Buick SPECIAL—this bottom-priced of the B-58 Buick line—for just a fraction more than the well-known smaller cars would cost you.

Good Management Can Mean Profits on Farm

Although it is becoming increasingly difficult, there are some families to prove it is possible, says John Doneth.

Some of the ways, that this is, being done will be described at this year's Barnyard Economics show at Adrian's Consumers Power building December 10 at 8 p.m.

Theme of the meeting is planning farm changes to keep in step with changing times.

☆

LENAWEE county extension staff is cooperating with Vo-Ag teachers in the area and John Doneth of the Department of Agricultural Economics at Michigan State University in arranging the program.

One of the tricks to make a smaller farm operation provide a good living is to keep expenses from getting out of hand.

Mr. Doneth says that machinery and labor expense often are the chief offenders.

The smaller farm frequently cannot economically own the larger pieces of equipment like 4-plow tractors and larger choppers.

On some smaller farms the investment involved in switching to bulk handling of milk has sometimes more than doubled the machinery investment.

☆

Mr. Doneth will demonstrate a system of farm business analysis that can make records talk. With this sytstem any farm family can compare their farm business results with results on a large number of farms which operate under conditions similar to their own.

In these times of rapid change in agriculture some system of analysis is needed by most farmers to keep their businesses in balance as they expand to take advantage of the new and sometimes costly technology.

The system to be demonstrated at the meeting is designed to fill this need, says Louis G. Hall, Lenawee county agricultural agent.

Centennial Farm Group Being Formed

LANSING — Lenawee County farmers, who have farms that have been in the same family a century or more and have been registered with the Michigan Historical Commission, will play a leading role in the formation of a new organization.

There are 115 registered and marked centennial farms in Lenawee.

Officers of the state centennial farm organiaztion will be elected and a constitution adopted at the annual Farmers Week meeting next January at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Purpose of the new group is "to recognize the contribution of centennial farm facilities to Michigan progress, and to encourage the development of rural life in Michigan as well as to aid the Michigan Historical Commission in the development of the history of local communities."

BOND SALES UP

In October, purchases by Michigan residents of both Series E and H savings bonds exceeded those for the same 1956 month, and October was the sixth month this year in which the state's bond sales topped the $25 million mark.

FOR ALL WE HOLD SACRED . . . ATTEND CHURCH !

THE QUEST FOR NEW TRAILS

The history of man is a story of progress. Each of its thousands of volumes could bear one common title: The Quest for New Trails.

Even in childhood we display this strange genius which has brought us from primeval forests to this atomic age. We love to penetrate the untouched spaces . . . to open trails where none have ever been.

But this quest could destroy us more rapidly than it has profited us. History recounts the fall of many a civilization too busy with its search for new trails to understand its deeper needs.

Or, bluntly, the future of this young Arctic explorer and of his world depends on the Church. The truths of God are unchanging—and ever more essential—as we seek new trails into the Unknown.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The only 1958 car that offers more of everything you want... yet is priced lower than in '57

Here's great news! While prices of 1958 cars of other manufacturers are up, the price of Ford's exciting new Custom 300 Series is down. A brand-new 58 Ford Custom 300 with all of its exciting new styling and engineering advances is priced lower than a '57 model, similarly equipped!

World approved styling. A Custom 300 brings you styling that is dramatically new. With its Honeycombed grille, Slipstream roof, Deep-Sculptured rear deck, and Safety-Twin headlights and taillights, Ford styling drew admiring glances from Paris to Saigon . . . yet it's yours now in any 58 Ford Custom 300 without extra cost!

New handling ease. Slide behind the wheel of a Custom 300 and you'll soon discover just how much fun driving can be. Notice how smoothly it handles. That's Ford's new feather-touch Magic-Circle steering, the next best thing to power steering.

New riding comfort. Notice, too, the solid comfort of your ride. That's Ford's easier acting front and rear suspensions. They soak up the bumps before they reach you.

Thrifty, new engines. You have a wonderful choice of new, more efficient power plants . . . designed for real gas-saving economy plus greater performance. Six or V-8, they give you more power, smoother power, from less gas!

Priced as much as $50 lower. A comparison of manufacturer's suggested retail delivered prices shows that a 58 Ford Custom 300 is priced as much as $50 less than the same model for '57! You'll wonder how Ford can offer so many of the things you want in a car priced so low. One big reason: Ford gives you more car for less money because Fords sells more!

See and drive a Custom 300 and we believe you'll agree that these Fords give you more real value for your car-buying dollars than any car on the American road today.

Jackson Spiritualist 'Borrows' $15,000 from Tecumseh Woman

After writing about others for more than 50 years, Edna Staulter now finds herself the center of newspaper publicity.

Confined to Herrick Memorial hospital since October 29, Mrs. Staulter has filed embezzlement charges against a Jackson spiritualist.

She will appear Thursday at a hearing in Jackson when evidence is examined preliminary to turning the case over to the Jackson county circuit court.

Since January 1957, Mrs. Staulter gave sums totaling $15,000 to 34-year old James G. Tingley, pastor of the Goodfellow Spiritualist Church.

"I loaned it over a period of time with the assurance it would be returned to me in money or bonds," Mrs. Staulter told The Herald in an interview Monday.

The specific charge filed is for only $325, which was the last amount given to Tingley.

Tingley was arrested Thursday night in a Jackson bar, charged and released on $3,000 bond.

Tingley is alleged to have secured more than $100,000 from his congregation during the 12 years he has been at the Jackson church.

There apparently is no evidence he was ever ordained as a minister.

The International Spiritualists Alliance of Detroit reports that he is no longer a member of that group, having been removed from the rolls over a year ago.

VOL 107 — ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH YEAR — NUMBER 11 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1957 18 PAGES — 10 CENTS A COPY

THE LONG and SHORT of it

BY TOM RIORDAN

LATE LAST WEEK, DAILY newspapers broke the story of a Tecumseh widow being victimized by an un-ordained Jackson minister to the tune of $15,000.

For three weeks, The Herald knew the yarn, but agreed not to run a line until the accused embezzler was picked up.

So, you might say, we missed a story. But that's the newspaper business.

However, there is a fascinating yarn which has gone on since last March about the case and that's the one we'd like to tell now.

To date, no one has told this story.

Quite a number of folks from the area had been attending the Goodfellow Spiritualist Church in Jackson and the reports he could track down were not good.

He learned that a car had been purchased for use by the minister, James Tingley, and that's when Chief Kilbourn went to work in earnest.

First of all he got in touch with Detective Leslie Wykes of the State Police, who lives in Tecumseh at 505 Nokomis street.

This officially opened the "Case Against Tingley" in Tecumseh.

For some years in Jackson there had been an unofficial "Tingley Case," but police there were powerless to act because no one would press charges.

that city, saying he needed ualist had duped five widows in taht city, saying he needed money to finance his divorce.

In obtaining cash, Tingley would tell his victim that he only needed it temporarily since he had $23,000 in bonds—some line.

The case broke October 29 when Edna Staulter was rushed to Herrick Memorial Hospital at the climax of a complete nervous breakdown.

She had been loaning Tingley money since January, mortgaging her home and furniture and then borrowing from five Tecumseh friends—until she realized she had given him $15,000.

That's a rate of more than $1,600 a month.

As Mrs. Staulter regained her strength during November, Chief Kilbourn dropped in for the first in a series of visits.

He pursuaded her to press charges against Tingley.

The necessary evidence was set down at four tape recording sessions in the hospital.

Detective Charles Southworth of Jackson pitched in as the "unofficial dossier" at Jackson — on Tingley was dumped onto the table.

The warrant was at last ready —on Tuesday—and a pick-up order went out. Tingley couldn't be found.

There was a quiver of fear that the spiritualist may somehow have learned of the action and departed.

However, Wednesday night came the payoff. The spiritualist was nabbed in a Michigan avenue bar, apparently oblivious of his fate.

130 Called Back

The personnel office at Tecumseh Products announced Tuesday that 130 persons had been called back to their jobs this week.

TECUMSEH HERALD PHOTO

WINTER ARRIVES — Yes, you can be sure we're in for some blustery weather and last weekend's snow is a case in point. It offered some gorgeous settings all over town and through the rural areas. This picture was made Saturday afternoon from just in front of the main gate to Brookside Cemetery.

Cars Are Damaged in Parking Mishap

Two residents of Chelsea were involved in a minor scrape on M-52 Tuesday when Louise Rosetta Vaughn, 61, attempted to pass Julius Lawrence Eisele, 61, who had started to pass another car turning onto Macon road.

Tecumseh police arrested William Marshall, 40, Detroit, Tuesday when he attempted to pass a check for $165 to the city and had insufficient funds in his account to cover the check.

'Sleepers Awake' Cantata Is Set for Sunday

The Cantata is part of the St. Andrew's annual Christmas Choral service. The second section of the program will be devoted to traditional carols and anthems.

The audience will also have an opportunity to participate in singing the carols.

Mrs. Rogers Feted on 95th Birthday

HOLLOWAY — Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Fairbanks entertained guests for dinner Sunday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ida Rogers, who was celebrating her ninety-fifth birthday.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mahon Gray and daughter, Cathy, of Adrian, and Mrs. Bertine Comfort of Holloway.

Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Fairbanks of rural Adrian, Rev. and Mrs. Howard Emerick and daughter, Beth, of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cadmus and daughter, Christine, of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Rogers received several gifts and many cards from her friends and neighbors.

KIWANIS CHARTERED JUNE 4, 1957

Youngest Service Club

BY DICK HICKS

So that the citizens of Tecumseh and area can know some of the history of Kiwanis, we will point out a few facts about the club.

Kiwanis is a service organization with challenging objectives which are realized through the activities of its constituent clubs in their respective communities.

It came into being in the City of Detroit, within sight of the international boundary line between the United States and Canada.

The birthday of Kiwanis is celebrated on January 21, because on that date in 1915, the Kiwanis Club of Detroit received its Michigan charter.

There are now in excess of 4,200 clubs in the United States and Canada including Newfoundland, Alaska, Yukon and Hawaii with approximtely 250,000 members.

The spiritual growth of the organization has more than kept pace with this numerical growth.

☆

THE ACHIEVEMENTS of the clubs in all forms of service and activities for community betterment have been outstanding.

The active membership shall consist of men of good character and community standing, residing, having community interests in, or engaged in recognized lines of business, agricultural, institutional and professional life, within the territorial limits of the club.

☆

OBJECTS OF Kiwanis International are:

- To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
- To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business and professional standards.
- To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship.
- To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.
- To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism, which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism and good will.

THE LOCAL Kiwanis Club was chartered June 4, 1957 with 25 members.

Meetings are held every Wednesday noon at 12:05 in the Tecumseh American Legion Hall.

President Fred Hadley extends his invitation to anyone who is interested in joining the club to contact him at anytime.

"We are Tecumseh's youngest service club and need more members who want to do service for their community," he states.

"Although you may already have a copy of this issue, buying one from a Kiwanian will be greatly appreciated," adds the president.

'The Torchbearers' Friday, Saturday

It's this year's senior play and the curtain will go up at 8 p.m. December 13 and 14, in the Central School Auditorium.

Jackie Rucker, as Mrs. J. Durs Pampinelli, struts about the stage as a self-righteous, ambitious trouble maker who leads Mrs. Ritter into the limelight, offering her visions of a "great career" and immortal fame.

☆

MRS. PAMPINELLI'S philosophies of life and her directions to others will give all a hearty chuckle and amusing time.

Nancy Dinse portraying Nellie Fell, a side-kick of Mrs. Pampinelli, gives advice on the theater and marriage.

The statement to her third husband, upon leaving the church, "Now, Leonard, you and I have just been made one; and I am that one," merely illustrated her personality.

All the problems in presenting a play are shown as the leading man forgets his lines, another loses his mustache several times, many of the stage properties are lost and to top everything, the scenery falls over, creating havoc and disorder.

☆

FREDERICK RITTER'S dogged opposition to the play and his sarcastic, but hilarious ridicule has the ladies going in circles, defending and yet criticising their efforts.

His wise and amusing solution to the problem in his home gives the play its delightful ending.

Gayly Decorated Country Club Scene of Ball

The gay party frocks were the perfect complement for the green background of pine, and thus the holiday atmosphere was evident.

Sandwiches and coffee were served in the upstairs dining room by Beth Satterthwaite and Mrs. Tom Hamilton, Sr.

Mrs. Richard Coak served as general chairman; Mrs. Charles Stevenson as invitation and ticket chairman; Mrs. Jan Kachur as decoration chairman and Mrs. Gordon Garlick as refreshment chairman.

You Told Us

BY DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"Christmas is coming, the goose is getting fat."

The little people at our home are beginning to watch the weather reports for snow and does that weatherman catch "it" when he predicts snow and not a flurry shows up.

Surely by December 25 we will be knee deep in the fluffy white stuff. Meantime to work, get the shopping done, the packages wrapped, the cookies made, the music practiced and sprinkle in a bit of carol singing just for fun.

My, it's a busy time, and let's keep it happy for no other people have more reason to celebrate than we right here in Tecumseh.

Among those from Tecumseh who are leaving for the southland for the season are Mr. and Mrs. Clare Beland going to Tavares, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beach going to Bradenton, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Munger going to Pinellas Park, Florida.

December 2 was a day of joy for Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Rossman of Jackson as a son, David Van, was born to them then. Mrs. Rossman is the former Marilyn VanWinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. VanWinkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Waterstradt entertained as guests Sunday, their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peter from Jackson; their grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Peter of Clinton and a grandson, Lyle Peter, who is an art teacher in the Hazel Park schools and William Bridges also of Hazel Park.

Children sometimes have the nicest ways of saying things. A little girl of our acquaintance upon waking up to a frosty, bright sunshiny morning recently said, "Mother, it's a diamond dust morning." What a lovely thought!

Another thought from a little boy we know when his mother was going over the numerous activities to take place between now and Christmas said, "When are we gonna eat?"

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Van Valkenourg happily report another grandson born Tuesday, December 10, in the University hospital, Ann Arbor. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Van Valkenburg and his name is Rodney, weight 7 lbs. 3 oz.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hartsell visited his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dernberger, in Pontiac Saturday.

Janet Welch and four children of Manchester were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Frost over the weekend.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Frost visited her uncle, David Lowry, a patient in Bixby Hospital, following surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Greg Barrett and son of Monroe were guests of Mrs. Arlie Becker and Charlene Sowers Sunday.

Mrs. Jerry Barton and her mother, Mrs. Harold Clark, were in Chicago over the weekend to attend a wedding of their niece and cousin.

A guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sisson for the Christmas season is her grandmother, Mrs. Roy McKay of Ridgetown, Canada. She arrived in Tecumseh last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kopka proudly announce the arrival of a new granddaughter, Brenda Joyce, weight 6 lbs. and 13 oz., born December 10 to the Rev. and Mrs. Fred Lippiatt of Draper, North Carolina. # SPIRITUALIST

TINGLEY, WHO OFTEN HELD PRIVATE SEANCES with Mrs. Staulter, assured her he had $23,000 in bonds at Lansing. He said the University of Miami in Florida had given these to him for lectures he made there on psychic research.

Often times, Tingley would be gone for several days and it was then she believed him to be at the university.

Mrs. Staulter is the first to press charges against Tingley, although police state others have been similiarly duped.

One woman, Mrs. Ruby Olsen of Jackson, who is in her eighties and according to Mrs. Staulter has given Tingley $45,000, is reacting in an unexpected manner.

Mrs. Olsen has said she'll rally 100 character witnesses who will upheld Tingley.

☆

MRS. STAULTER is well known in Tecumseh and Lenawee county for her capabilities as a newspaper woman.

She began her career 52 years ago setting type and running hand presses at The Tecumseh News.

For 42 years, she was a staffer on The News and The Herald. When her mother suffered a broken leg in the Forties, she resigned to care for her.

It was then she became Tecumseh representative for The Adrian Telegram and The Jackson Citizen-Patriot.

☆

She told The Herald the last few days before her hospitalization were practically "a total blank."

Mrs. Staulter, who is an accomplished pianist, played for a Rebekah Lodge initiation five days earlier and didn't recall it.

"Friends told me last week," she said Monday, "that this was the first time they couldn't march to my music."

On October 28 she prepared her regular copy for The Telegram, but only remembers writing one line, "Baldy, I'm an awfully sick woman.

The comment was addressed to Waldron Stewart, Telegram county editor, and gave mute evidence of Mrs. Staulter's condition.

Raisin Cookies Completes Plans for Coming Party

The Raisin Cookies summer club made plans for a Christmas Party when 17 members met at the home of their leader, Mrs. August Hoffmeister, Monday evening.

A bake sale was discussed and the date will be announced later.

Mrs. Hoffmeister distributed pins, certificates and fair premiums. Refreshments were served.

430 Penny Gifts Purchased Tree for School Foyer

Students of the kindergarten, fourth and sixth grades of the Patterson school will present a musical program under the direction of Mrs. Louis Caterina at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

The tree for the foyer was purchased with a one penny donation from each of the 430 students attending the school. They each also brought one decoration for it.

This tree is definitely a project of the children themselves and parents will be interested to see how lovely it looks with its many decorations.

The program will take the place of the regular PTA meeting, usually held the third Thursday of the month.

Gift to Make

You can make this dear little baby rabbit as easy as pie — and for pennies, too! A perfect present for the toddlers on your Christmas list, he's made of cuddly Soft Spun yarn, stands 14" high. His body is made of yarn strands; drawn, tied, and cut. The floppy ears and funny feet are done in simple single-crochet stitch. Couldn't be simpler! Total cost runs about $1.50.

To make this new toy design, send for Kentucky Yarn's FREE illustrated leaflet, which also contains directions for crocheting a "Candy Stripe" rug. Just mail a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the woman's editor of this paper.

Tecumseh Methodists Hold Hymn Festival

The 250th Anniversary of the birth of Methodism's greatest hymn-writer was observed in a special service at the Tecumseh Methodist church Sunday.

Under the direction of the Rev. James D. Nixon, the worship was arranged for the occasion by Dr. Austin Lovelace, Garrett seminary organist and music professor.

Mr. Nixon gave the background and insights into the nature of certain Wesley hymns.

☆

THE PRELUDE and Postlude as played by Mrs. Kenton Hunt, were also tunes to noted hymns of Charles Wesley.

It was the first of several Advent Sunday evening events.

The next will be the Choirs' Christmas Program next Sunday at 7 p.m.

The Church School Christmas Worship Service comes on December 22.

Hoopsters Score Exciting Win Over Adrian '5'

Coach Vic Lawson sent his Indians into a full court press in the final six minutes.

☆

UNABLE TO COPE with the press, Adrian lost the ball repeatedly to the aggressive Tecumseh team, which turned the thefts into points.

The six-five cager missed both charity throws, preserving Tecumseh's third victory of the campaign.

Matheson paced Adrian's attack with 18 points.

ONE OF STARS—Larry Yoakum was one of several Tecumseh stars in the exciting win over Adrian Tuesday. Larry popped in a free toss that proved the margin of victory and several times in the final moments of play stole the ball to thaw Maple offensive drives.

Boysville Five Journey to Dexter on Friday Evening

In their season opener, the Knights fell to Deerfield, 52 to 31. The same teams clash again at Deerfield December 17.

The junior varsity also lost its first time out, 31 to 26, to Deerfield.

Dundee '5' Here Next Tuesday

Dundee high school sends its basketball team to Tecumseh Tuesday as the Indians shoot for their fourth victory.

The Hillsmen topped Tecumseh, 71 to 51.

The usual high-scoring John Elliott was cold, getting but seven points.

QUESTION:

WHAT all new AUTOMATIC WASHER HAS 5 WATER TEMPERATURES?

the answer is EASY

1. cold... wonderful for woolens! Just twist the dial and you have the correct wash water for blankets... even cashmere sweaters!
2. cool... ideal for precious Orlon! Easy "tempers" the water for your sensitive synthetics... prevents any matting or "pilling."
3. warm... just right for Nylons! Like many modern fabrics... Nylon develops wrinkles in too-hot water. New Easy prevents this.
4. medium... excellent for Embossed Cottons! When washing directions call for moderately hot water... Easy has it on tap... automatically.
5. hot... just the ticket for color-fast things! When you want to get grimy clothes really clean, the answer is Easy!

ALL-NEW AUTOMATIC WASHER

Imagine! An automatic washer so safe it almost "hand-washes" your clothes! 2-speed control lets you wash any fabric. 3 rinse temperatures let you get all your clothes clean. Truly... for the safest automatic washing... Easy does it!

REALTY VIEWS

"I'd like to find a good real estate investment," said Tom Chalken. "I'm convinced an investment in real estate is the safest place for my funds.

Mr. Chalken continued. "Last Spring I put $20,000 into choice stocks—some of America's biggest corporations. Since July, as you probably know, the stock market has fallen off from 15% to 20%. In fact, one aircraft stock I bought dropped over 50% in value, although it has since come back up a little. Still that one stock is down nearly 40% from last April.

"Now I contend," Mr. Chalken said, "that real estate values wouldn't decline that fast. I want an investment that has stability. A fluctuation of stock prices has caused me to lose $4,000 or more in just a few months. I know if I had invested my money in good real estate, the property would still be worth what I pair for it."

"Yes," I replied, "good real estate is the world's safetst investment. It has other advantages too." And I mentioned these to Mr. Chalken.

Buildings Without Poles Prove Popular

Lenawee county farmers are developing quite an interest in low-cost, one-story buildings without interior poles or posts.

Louis G. Hall, county agricultural agent, says trusses made with ring-bolts or glue-nail joints for clear-span buildings cost a little more.

But he says the total construction bill is no more because of savings in poles or posts and roof purlins needed with conventional design.

MICHIGAN STATE University agricultural engineers have tested gable trusses with spans of 24 feet, 30 feet, 36 feet and 40 feet and have developed plans for farm use.

They also have single slope trusses for building additions of 24 feet using either the ring-bolt or glue-nail design.

You can get additional information on these types of construction in Farm Building Series Circulars 727 and 732. Copies are available at the county etxension office in Adrian.

Many Lenawee county dairy farms are undergoing a revolution, according to county agricultuarl agent Clayton C. Ingerson.

Mr. Ingerson explains that much of the revolution involves changes in size and operating methods of the dairy farm.

Ten to 12-cow dairy herds are rapidly disappearing, while more and more dairy farmers are milking herds of at least 30 cows.

Although dairy herds of 60 to 100 cows are still few in number, they are on the increase.

☆

UPPING THE size of the dairy herd multiplies the decisions the farmer has to make.

He's got to cope with problems of supplying feed, maintaining herd health and high production per cow beside finding and keeping good help.

The extent to which net income increases with larger herds depends on how well the dairy farmer selects profitable production alternatives.

One such decision that has to be made is whether to buy feed or use additional land to produce more feed for the extra cows.

SOMETIMES, as on an actual 100-cow dairy farm recently studied by Michigan State University agricultural economists, buying roughage can be more profitable than growing it.

This is likely to be the case especially if farming more land would divert attention from the dairy herd and cause average herd production to go down.

In making such decisions, the entire farming operation must be taken into consideration, Ingerson says.

Cold weather really "saps" the energy out of a battery, say Michigan State University agricultural engineers. Storing the car or tractor in as warm a place as possible will help save the battery and will mean faster starts this winter.

Farmers Expect To Use More Credit In 1958

Farmers are expected to use more credit during 1958 than they did in 1957, but the prospect is that they'll have to pay more for it.

Demand for credit among farmers has been steadily increasing for the past 15 years, and it will undoubtedly continue, according to agricultural economist Elton Hill of Michigan State University.

Hill points out that capital is playing a more important part in the farm business. This is especially true for younger farmers who are modernizing or enlarging their farming operations.

The size of the average loan to farmers is getting larger, and farmers need to use careful planning to keep their total debt load at a level they can repay.

☆

AS FAR AS the supply of credit during the coming year is concerned, Hill says that the outlook is spotty.

Some country bankers report that the credit situation will be improved; others say it will be about the same.

Dealer and merchant credit made up about half of the short-term and intermediate-term loans to Michigan farmers last year, and this type of credit is expected to stay fairly easy during 1958.

Interest rates went up during 1957. Long-term farm real estate credit will be about as easy to get in 1958 as in 1957 at an interest rate of 5½ to 6 per cent.

Short-term, farm operating loans will probably carry interest rates or 6 to 7 per cent, with more of the smaller loans at the 7 per cent rate than was the case in 1957.

Hill stresses that credit is a useful tool for the farm operator, and should be used where more capital is needed.

It will be especially important, however, to make sure that the repayment schedule for the loan fits the earning power and debt-paying capacity of the borrower.

Proper ventilation in the poultry house this winter can save poultrymen money in three ways. In addition to promoting better flock health, ventilation may also be the key to maintaining winter production and efficient feed conversion, say Michigan State University agricultural engineers.

Don't Let Flock Catch Head Colds, Ag Agent Warns

That reminder comes from Clayton C. Ingerson, Lenawee county associate agricultural agent.

Cold weather that's just around the corner makes birds easy prey for varioius types of respiratory diseases.

Chickens feel just as miserable as humans when they get colds. Birds with stuffed up heads and running noses just don't feel like laying eggs. So down goes the income from the flock.

☆

RAISING THE temperature and improving ventilation to dry out the house are about the best ways to combat respiratory diseases when they strike.

Sometimes it's also necessary to add litter to help absorb some of the excess moisture.

Several respiratory diseases have similar symptoms and the veterinanian can identify the exact trouble and prescribe proper treatment.

It's also a good idea to make a note for next fall to vaccinate replacement birds against Newcastle, infectious bronchitis and fowl pox. This will help protect them from some of the respiratory diseases.

Feeding dairy cows large amounts of protein which they may not need is a waste of money, according to Michigan State University dairy specialists. Extra protein can be used by the cow for energy but corn is a much cheaper source of energy.

Neighbors Lend Helping Hands to Harvest Corn

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Murphy are grateful for the kindness of their neighbors in helping them to get their corn harvested this year.

Mr. Murphy had been a patient in the hospital recently and though he was able to assist with the harvest, the full job would have been much more than he could do.

About 30 to 35 acres of corn was put into cribs by Clarence Heimerdinger and his three sons, Clarence, Jr., George and David Allen Wise, LeRoy Heilman, John Hewlett, Walter Denny and M. M. Halley—all members of Tecumseh Grange.

Beside picking and hauling the corn, extra cribs for temporary storage were built by the congenial men.

Dinner was served by Mrs. Murphy.

Cost of Grain Key to Profits in Beef Cattle

Michigan cattle feeders are going to have to squeeze production costs if they hope to make much of a profit this season.

The key to a profitable operation will be cheap gains.

To keep cost of gain down, farmers can use poor quality feeds first and then improve the ration as cattle get close to market weight.

Roughage should make up the bulk of the ration. And where silage, especially corn, is available it should be used. You can also use oats now and then switch to corn later.

Regular Meeting of the Common Council of the City of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, held on the 2nd day of December 1957, at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mayor Hanna, Councilmen Brazee, Hamilton, Kelso, Purkey, Schlegel.

Absent: Freckleton.

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Councilman Schlegel and supported by Councilman Purkey.

WHEREAS the replacement of the bridge spanning the River Raisin on North Evans Street, said bridge being otherwise known as the Red Pond Bridge and being designated by the Michigan State Highway Department as Project B 2 OF 46-21-5 C-2, is now pending; and

WHEREAS the estimated cost of said project is $196,000.00 of which amount the sum of $30,000.00 is the aliquot portion which the City of Tecumseh must pay; and

WHEREAS for the purpose of defraying the City's share of the cost of said bridge construction, the City desires to borrow money and issue its bonds in anticipation of the receipt of state-collected taxes to be returned to the City for major street purposes pursuant to Act No. 51, Michigan Public Acts of 1951, as amended; and

WHEREAS there has not been heretofore specially allocated and pledged for the payment of indebtedness, any portion of the moneys to be so derived by the City from State collected taxes returned to the City for highway purposes pursuant to law; and

WHEREAS the total amount received by the City from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund pursuant to said Act. No. 51, Michigan Public Acts of 1951, as amended, for its Major Street System, in the five years immediately preceding the contemplated borrowing is more than sufficient to comply with all the requirements specified in Section 4 of Act 175, Public Acts of Michigan of 1952 as amended; and

WHEREAS Notice of Intent to Issue Bonds was duly published in the Tecumseh Herald, a newspaper of general circulation within the City of Tecumseh, on October 10, October 17, October 24, and October 31.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. That this Council hereby reaffirms its action heretofore taken for the making of the above mentioned major bridge construction and for the joint participation of the City in paying the cost thereof and hereby adopts and confirms the estimate of $30,000.00 as the City's share of such cost.

2. This Council hereby determines to borrow under the provisions of Act No. 175 of the Public Acts of 1952, (MSA 5.3190 et seq), the sum of Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars in anticipation of the receipt of moneys to be derived from State collected taxes returned to said City for major bridge construction pursuant to law, for the purpose of defraying the City's share of the cost of said bridge improvement.

3. The Bonds of said City of Tecumseh, aggregating the principal sum of Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) and no/100 Dollars shall be issued for the purpose of defraying a part of the City's share of the cost of said bridge construction, said Bonds to be dated 15 January 1958; to be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 15, both inclusive; to be in the denomination of $2,000.00 each; to bear interest at a rate or rates to be hereafter determined, not exceeding four and one-half per cent (4½) per annum payable on 15 July 1958, and thereafter semi-annually on the 15th day of January and July in each year; and to mature on the 15th day of July in each year as follows: $2,000.00 in each of the years 1959 through 1973. Bonds shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the City, in inverse numerical order, on any one or more interest payment dates on and after 15 July, 1959, at the par value thereof and accrued interest, plus a premium in accordance with the following schedule, to-wit:

$30.00 if called to be redeemed on or after 15 July 1959 but prior to 15 July 1961.

$20.00 if called to be redeemed on or after 15 July 1961 but prior to 15 July 1964.

$15.00 if called to be redeemed on or after 15 July 1964 but prior to 15 July, 1966.

$10.00 if called to be redeemed on or after 15 July, 1966.

Notice of redemption shall be given to the holders of the Bonds to be redeemed, by publication of such Notice not less than Thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the City of Tecumseh, Michigan, and the Michigan Investor. Bonds so called for redemption shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption, provided funds are on hand with the paying agent to redeem the same. All Bonds shall have proper coupons attached thereto evidencing interest to their respective dates of maturity.

4. The principal of said Bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America, at such bank or trust company as shall be designated by the original purchaser of the Bonds.

5. The Mayor and City Clerk are hereby authorized and directed to execute said Bonds for and on behalf of the said City by respectively signing and attesting the same and to affix the Seal of the City thereto, and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute the interest coupons to be attached to said Bonds by causing to be affixed thereto their facsimile signatures, and upon the execution of said Bonds and attached coupons, the same shall be delivered to the Clerk of said City who is hereby authorized and directed to deliver said Bonds and attached coupons to the purchaser thereof upon receipt of the purchase price therefor.

6. The principal of and interest on said bonds shall be payable primarily from the proceeds of revenues derived from state collected taxes returned to said city for major street purposes pursuant to law, and an irrevocable appropriation for the payment of said principal and interest is hereby made from the moneys to be so returned. The City Clerk shall, while any of said bonds shall be outstanding, set aside in a separate fund from the said revenues received by the City from time to time, an amount sufficient to pay the next maturing principal and interest on said bonds. The full faith and credit of said City is also pledged for the prompt payment of said principal and interest when due. In the event that the said revenues pledged to the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds, are at any time insufficient therefor, the City shall pay said principal and interest as the same shall become due, to the same extent as other general obligation bonds of the City, and shall be reimbursed from subsequent revenues received by the City from the state collected taxes returned to the City for major street purposes pursuant to law.

Their Aim: To Help Others

Members of two city organizations are busy giving of their time and themselves with but a single aim—helping the less fortunate.

In another undertaking, Kiwanis clubbers will stage their first annual "Youth Activities Sale" of The Tecumseh Herald.

This later venture, patterned closely after the well-known Old Newsboys sale in Detroit, will take place Friday and Saturday.

The men making up these organizations are to be commended for their thoughtfulness.

We venture the opinion that there isn't a one of them looking for a verbal pat on the back, but speaking for those youngsters who will be helped by their considerate actions, we say "Thank you."

Christmas Is Truly in the Air

Traditional Yule-time parties are popping up on the calendar at a more and more rapid rate as December rolls along.

School children are busy on little Christmas projects, toiling extra hours to rehearse for annual programs.

As far as most of you are concerned there are two other items which will bear considerable attention—Christmas cards and gifts.

Now don't chide us if we take off on the "Shop in Tecumseh" tack again this week, but just regard these two points:

* For the most part, you can obtain everything on your list, at the price you'd like to pay, right here.

* When you buy in Tecumseh, you help yourself—the merchant you buy from here pays taxes here, he helps you support Tecumseh schools, Tecumseh police, Tecumseh firemen. In many instances, some of the cash outlay you make now will find its way back to you later.

START OF CHURCH YEAR

Advent Wreath Is Symbol

An Advent wreath, symbolizing the approach of Christmas, is being used by Gloria Dei Lutheran Church in observance of the Advent season.

The candles mark the succeeding Sundays as Christmas draws near; the first Sunday in advent finds one of them lighted and, progressively, as the Sundays come, another is lighted until on the Sunday before Christmas all four candles are lighted.

☆

ADVENT BEGINS the church year, which is built around the three main observances—Christmas, Easter, Pentecost.

The Advent season has an ancient, but uncertain origin.

The earliest record of Advent is associated with the Synod of Lerida, 524 A.D., where marriage during Advent was forbidden.

This, apparently, was to emphasize the solemnness of the season.

The people of Gloria Dei Lutheran find it adds to the atmosphere of worship, even in the high school gym which they are using while awaiting completion of arrangements for their own facilities.

The new congregation has been holding services since August, has arranged for the purchase of property, and in February plans to organize as a congregation in full standing in the United Lutheran Church.

Sheep Feeders May Be Missing Income

Sheep raisers are missing a bet to increase their income from the flock if they don't apply for incentive payments under the wool program, says Clayton C. Ingerson, Lenawee county agricultural agent.

But to make the application for the payment, you've got to have records of all purchases and sales.

Records must include name of buyer, his original signature, date of the transaction and the number and live weight of the lambs with the description "unshorn" showing.

Payments are made only on lambs that have not been shorn, regardless of whether they are sold as slaughter or feeder lambs.

☆

LAMB FEEDERS should also keep accurate records of the length of time they have owned a specific lot of lambs.

Lamb payments are made only when one feeder has owned the lambs for at least 30 days.

Mr. Ingerson says the final date for applying for 1957-1958 marketings is April 30, 1958.

But applications may be submitted to the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office any time before that date. The office is at 118 W. Church street in Adrian.

Last year in some areas of Michigan, less than half of the eligible sheep raisers applied for the incentive payments.

Concert in Macon

A musical concert will be held at the Macon Church December 15 at 8 p.m. The concert will be presented by the choir of the First Methodist Church of Ann Arbor with Dr. Lester McCoy directing.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

TB Still a Problem in Lenawee County

Dr. John S. Wisely, director of the Lenawee county health department, warned that tuberculosis is still a problem in Lenawee county and urged local citizens to buy Christmas Seals to help fight TB.

The total TB case load in the county has actually increased in recent years, according to Dr. Wisely. At present, 186 people are under Health department supervision for tuberculosis.

"TB deaths have been cut drastically, but the number of new cases is declining more slowly," Dr. Wisely said. "As long as this happens, we can expect the total case load to continue to increase. The job now is to reduce the number of new cases."

Dr. Wisely explained that the case load includes people with active and inactive TB. Supervision of active TB is essential because TB is communicable. Supervision of inactive TB is essential because TB is a relapsing disease.

THE LENGTH of supervision after TB becomes inactive varies, but this 'follow-up' period usually runs about five years," the health director said. "Lenawee county has 36 people hospitalized for TB. The remainder, 150, are under health department care."

"Strangely, the big job now is to convince people to use available facilities—to get a checkup for TB and go to a hospital if they are found to be ill. So the educational work of the Voluntary TB Association is as necessary as ever," Dr. Wisely said. "I urge everyone in Lenawee county to buy Christmas Seals that the fight against TB in our area can be continued until it is won.

MRS. RING'S FATHER

An interesting side note to last week's article about the Ridgeway Methodist church story—Christopher Barrett, who donated the land the church was built on and gave $4,000 for its erection was the father of Mrs. Beatrice Ring of Tecumseh.

Christmas Tree Can Be Serious Fire Hazard

A Christmas tree can be a serious fire hazard to your home if not handled properly, the state health department reminds Michigan residents.

The department said at least three things can be done to reduce the danger of indoors Christmas tree fires:

1—Set the tree in a container of water and keep the container filled. This will keep the tree from drying out. A dry tree burns with explosive suddenness.

2—Keep open flames, such as from candles, away from the tree. Also make sure that lights and electrical devices used in decorating the tree are in good repair and aren't shorting or overheating.

3—Spray the tree with one of the new chemical fire retardants now on the market. The spray will not make the tree completely fireproof, but it will make it fire resistant.

There's a Starch for Every Taste

There's a starch on the market to suit every taste—crisp,, heavy, pliable or light, says Bernetta Kahabka, extension specialist in clothing at Michigan State University.

Both vegetable and plastic starches are available to give body to washable fabrics.

You may want to try different kinds of starch to find the one to give the effect you want.

☆

HOT WATER AND cooked starches come in powder, cubes and crystals. They usually tend to add more body to fabrics.

Pre-cooked, instant starches used with cold water are convenient. They dissolve fast and stay dissolved.

Plastic starches may or may not be permanent. Some types are sizing agents which dissolve in water and come out in each washing, bring soil with them.

Permanent plastic starch penetrates the fabric and is set by heat as you iron the garment.

Depending on the brand, the finish will last from 5 to 10 or more washings.

☆

YOU'LL FIND some plastic starches available are made to give garments body but not stiffness. These work well on dark cottons.

To keep the dark, rich color of dark cottons you can add bluing to any pre-cooked or plastic starch.

No matter what starch you use for dark colored cottons be sure it's completely dissolved for satisfactory results.

With any starch follow directions on the package and be careful not to overstarch.

TUCKED IN FOR WINTER — Out of the north came the wintery blasts Friday night and Saturday morning. Snow clung to the sides of the trees, as this photo taken along N. ## THE LONG and SHORT of it

BY TOM RIORDAN

In the play-for-pay world of athletics, nothing has so captured the heart of sports lovers in recent years as professional football.

Week after week, the pro gridders put on one startling exhibition after another.

Here is a game which offers chills and thrills to everyone — men and women, those who know the game, those who don't.

Our office gal, Gladys, asked one Monday morning if we thought the games were fixed.

At first glance, it might appear as if things had been rigged to keep the fans coming.

But don't kid yourself, when athletes begin to plan the scores before they appear on the field of battle, the contest suddenly loses its luster.

Witness the death of professional wrestling and certain segments of boxing.

The men who take part in professional football love the game and it's a good bet that many would play even without pay. They're grand physical specimans and they enjoy the rugged contact offered by football.

It may sound odd but there's probably nothing they like better than to run head-on into a foe while both are going at top speed.

Don't get the idea they're stupid or sub-normal, because they're not. These are mostly college graduates — some doctors, engineers, business executives — who likely could outscore most of us in an IQ test.

A lot of funny little things happen during the course of the professional season and we'd like to tell you a couple.

Some seasons ago, the Detroit Lions were playing the Chicago Bears in Briggs Stadium. It was the usual rock 'em, sock 'em game.

At the time, George Wilson was the new Detroit end coach, having just hung up his cleats as a Bear player a year or two before.

Chicago had the ball at midfield, fourth and inches to go. They smacked the center of the line and it appeared as if the Lions had held.

Suddenly the referee signaled first-and-10.

At Briggs Stadium, the benches are both on the east side of the field, separated by about 10 yards.

Poppa Bear Halas smiled happily at his former star and yelled, "It's OK George, I saw it and he made the first."

Another time when Bob McMillin was guiding the Lions in a disastrous year, he had two quarterbacks, Clyde LaForce and Fred Enke.

McMillin had LaForce warm-up along the sidelines by taking the short T-formation snap from a sub center.

Detroit got to about the 10 on the field and Enke fumbled as he received the pigskin from the pivot man. The stands groaned and then there was silence.

Chest Contributions Reach $13,354 Mark

The present figure stands at $13,354.09.

People, who have not contributed as yet and wish to do so, can leave the money with Merlyn Downing at the United Savings Bank.

Tingley Hearing Postponed

For a second time, the hearing in justice court of evidence in an embezzelment suit against James Tingley of Jackson has been postponed.

Originally set for last week, it was delayed until this Thursday.

The suit is for $325. Actually, Mrs. Staulter says that she gave Tingley a total of $15,000.

Tingley is an un-ordained minister who has for the past 12 years operated the Goodfellow Spiritualist Church in Jackson.

When located last week after a warrant was sworn out against him, the twice-divorced Tingley was in a Jackson bar.

Starting January 1, the firemen will be on duty only once a month for 96 hours during a week, and 72 hours the other weeks.

Councilmen discussed:

- Extending Maumee street south to Russell road.
- Supervision of the winter and summer city recreation program.

STAR SCOUTS TO THE RESCUE

Skater Pulled Out of River

Ten-year old Mike Montgomery found himself in icy water up to his neck Wednesday afternoon when he skated out onto the Raisin River behind the Donald Cobb residence in Herrick Park.

Eight or nine boys had been skating on an inlet which was frozen to safety thickness when Mike decided to venture farther out, despite warnings of the other boys.

Fast-thinking John Oberlin and Mike Wilson hustled for a big push broom kept there for sweeping the snow away and sprawled on the ice, reaching the broom to Mike who grasped it and was pulled to safety by the two 11-year old Boy Scouts.

☆

HOWARD WILSON, Scoutmaster of Troop 73, is justly proud of these boys from his troop and all Tecumseh is grateful for the safety of Mike.

Mr. Wilson is doubly proud because one of the boys is his son, the other is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oberlin.

Perhaps all Tecumseh young people will take extra precaution because of this incident early in the season and skate only when they are certain the ice is safe.

TECUMSEH DEVELOPMENT COMPANY ORGANIZED

Hopes To Bring Industry Here

Seven local men organized under the name of Tecumseh Development Company last Thursday to encourage new industry to move into Tecumseh.

The site is just southeast of the Tecumseh Products on Russell road. A railroad siding is close to the large plot, which extends 659 feet along Russell road and 873 feet along Maumee, if the city puts the street through next year as reported.

The Tecumseh men started the non-profit organization last spring when negotiations for the land began with William Mackey.

Present plans include giving the land away if the right company moves here. Members also state they will build, if necessary, and lease or sell, depending on requirements of the new factory.

The local group expects to meet monthly and make personal contacts with all companies which are known to be contemplating moves, either from another state or out of large cities.

Hats of Wood, Onion Sack, Alarm Clock Bring Down House

Hit of the program was a showing of bizarre hats.

Chapeaus of wood, onion sacks, an alarm clock, egg carton, lamp shade, coffee percolator, even a flit gun, all created by the ladies, served to bring a great amout of hilarity.

The accompanying narration, cleverly written, made the group howl with laughter.

"Here is a quaint little shaver for the would-be stylists, Hi Ho Silver. This chippy little headpiece comes in maple, birch, and aspin . . . . a number that most women will positively be knots about. Have you ever seen anything quite like it? You'd be a sap not to get one. Nail the old man right now . . . . tell him to call Evergreen Lumber Company. Forest tree, tree, tree . . . . and ask for Mr. Twig of the downtown branch . . . . the price ? ? ? ? Wooden you like to know?"

Bertine Rhoades was the mistress of ceremonies and Josephine Fojtik accompanied at the piano while Priscilla Brown led the group singing of Christmas songs.

A reading, "Following the Star," was presented by Vi Daehne and a monologue by Alice Collum was also enjoyed.

NO ELEMENT OF CHANCE

"Calculated risk" seems to be a popular phrase for old-fashioned "gamble." But there's no place for either in preparing or dispensing pharmaceuticals.

Ever notice the letters U.S.P. or N.F. on a medicine label? The letters represent two official books that are recognized by federal law—the United States Pharmacopoeia and the National Formulary.

Together they are the pharmacist's "bible." They give approved standards of the quality, purity, and potency of most medicinal agents.

Whatever your prescription calls for, we are prepared to fill it.

Foreign Teachers Are Grange Guests

About 80 people attended Tecumseh Grange Thursday evening to greet a bus load of exchange teachers from the University of Michigan.

They represented 19 countries among them Iran, Japan, Egypt, Spain and most of the South American countries.

All are teachers of English in their individual countries and will spend six months in the U.S.

They were taken on a tour of Harold Rohrbock's modern dairy farm at milking time, then to the William Brown farm where they saw the modern and scientific way of feeding beef cattle.

AFTER A POTLUCK supper they observed the business meeting and program.

Rev. Mr. Priest of the Britton Congregational Church spoke on "Preparing for Christmas", and told of his Christmas in Germany after World War I.

☆

THEN THE foreign teachers took over and presented songs of their countries, folk songs, a piano solo.

Then all joined in a clapping cheer to us and our country led by a Japanese cheer leader.

The evening ended with square dancing by the mixed group. On leaving the Egyptian remarked; "If we could only have more of this; peace, and not so much sputnik."

With Tecumseh Teens

BY MARY V. SEAGER

Biggest event of last week was Tecumseh's victory over Adrian. Both of our teams beat theirs to their horror and disgust.

Our cheerleaders looked sharp in the skirts of their new uniforms that were paid for by the bake sale several weeks ago. They'll get the sweaters to go with the skirts soon.

☆

THE FUTURE NURSES' field trip that had been planned for Friday did not come off. They had planned to go to Harper Hospital.

☆

THE CALIFORNIA Mental Maturity Test was given second hour Wedensday to those pupils that hadn't taken it previously.

☆

THURSDAY THE eighth-grade music class polled all the students in the building on the Top Ten songs of the week. This was taken care of during study hall. These are the songs in the order of their number of votes.

1. At the Hop
2. Great Balls of Fire

4. O, Boy
5. Jailhouse Rock
6. Be-Bop Baby
7. Jingle Bell Rock
8. Raunchy
9. Why Don't They Understand
10. The Twelfth of Never

There were 789 votes for an unknown, but very popular song called "Red Rabbit Rock."

☆

THURSDAY AND Friday the Teen Club Tattler went on sale for 1c a copy. It features: Current Events, Backyard Whispers, and Editor's Corner. The staff members are Editor—D. Champanois, Events—K. M. # 'Cold' Tecumseh Loses to Vikings

A "cold" Tecumseh five bowed to visiting Dundee Tuesday night, 65 to 56 in Indians final game until after the first of the year.

Dundee, undefeated now in five tilts, dominated play with the exception of the second quarter when the local five outscored the visitors, 16 to11.

Big 6-4 Norm Weyher upped his seasons' average of 22.5 points per game with a 25-point performance to lead the Vikings, 1956-'57 champions of the Huron League.

Coach Vic Lawson's five, with the exception of Larry Yoakum, fired away in the first half, missing time after time from the field.

Yoakum tallied 16 of Tecumseh's 29 points in the first two periods.

O'Neill, who ended the game with 14 points, scored only two points in the first half, and Elliott, who also scored 14 points, tossed in 7 points in the first half.

Early in the third period, Tecumseh built-up a four-point lead when Dundee hit for nine straight points and then pulled away for an eight-point margin with Weyher hitting underneath and Dale Popelar and Brian French from the sides.

The Vikings routed the Indians in the final quarter with another nine-point splurge for a 14-point lead. The Indians hit for six consecutive points near the end to narrow the gap.

Tecumseh Jayvees walloped their opponents for an easy 52 to 31 win. The Indians' Poley hit for 13 points.

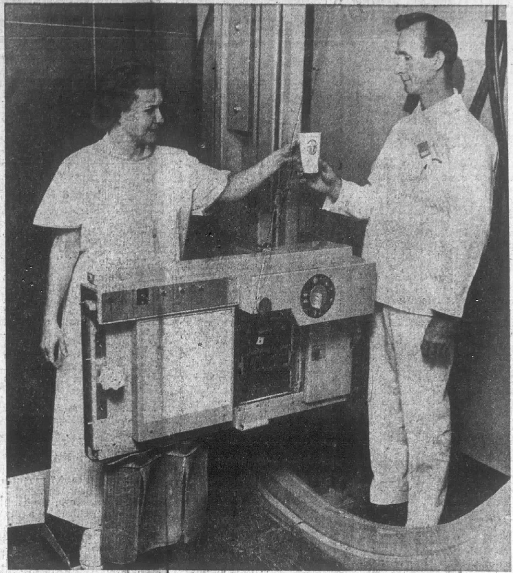
INFANT X-RAY — Kirk Douglas Silveira was a few days old when he was prepared to be X-rayed. Holding Kirk is his mother, Mrs. Ronald Silveira of Dundee. Bringing the unit into place is Technician Mrs. George Choske of 707 Wenonah.



FLUOROSCOPE—The X-ray also has an adaption for fluroscopy, which means examination of vital organs by actually looking at them instead of shooting an X-ray picture. Here, technicians Catherine Choske and Ogland Lay demonstrate preparations — namely drinking of barium.

HOSPITAL X-RAY PLAYS IMPORTANT ROLE

For instance, new-born infants, when attending physicians request it, are X-rayed.

The film is studied by radiologists to determine any abnormalities in the child and then placed on file for possible future reference.

Other patients, upon entry, are given X-rays as a check for heart conditions, TB or tumors. These too are filed.

These are two examples of the diagnosis angle of this hospital division.

☆

Both recently completed a six-week post graduate course at the University of Michigan in the use of radio active isotopes for treatment of humans.

Dr. Boyd also took and passed an examination from the American Board of Radiology in Washington, receiving a Certificate in Nuclear Medicine.

Besides his duty here, Dr. Boyd also serves certain days of each week as a radiologist at hospitals in Hudson, Michigan, Wauseon, Ohio and Napoleon, Ohio.

To do this he has to drive nearly 30,000 miles a year.

☆

SINCE X-RAY produces radio activity, great precaution is taken to check department employees and make certain there are no leaks from the lead-sealed treatment room.

A regular check is made by a consulting radioactive protection officer, A. H. Emmons of the University of Michigan.

He quickly determines if there are any leaks under the door or around the window through which treating physicians view the patient.

As a precaution for workers, each wears a special badge which contains a small dental-type X-ray. These are periodically developed and examined by a specialist to make sure no one receives too much exposure.

Equipment in the X-ray division is valued at about $60,000 and stacks up among the best in America.

DARKROOM — A vital part of the X-ray division is its darkroom where the negatives are developed. Here, Technician Ogland Lay of 215 W. Brown street, dips a 14x20 sheet of film into the fixer.

Farmers Are Urged To Check Flocks for Fowlpox Signs

Some of the state's laying flocks are being troubled with fowlpox, according to Dr. William Mathey, poultry disease control specialist ot Michigan State University.

Mathey explains that fowlpox is a virus disease that is similar to smallpox of man.

It may show up as scabby spots on the comb and wattles, or as so-called "wet pox" in the mouth and eyes, Dr. Mathey says. It is rarely fatal but egg production from infected birds goes way down.

Some infections are more mild and birds may be sick for only a few days. Other infections can be severe and it may take birds a month or so to get back into production.

Fowlpox is readily prevented by vaccination. But because the disease can be confused with other difficulties, it's best to have sick birds checked by a veterinarian. He can prescribe the specific treatment.

Newly Designated Centennial Farm Is Near Ridgeway

A tract of land in Ridgeway township has been designated a "centennial farm" by the Michigan Historical Commission.

This newly-designated centennial farm is owned and operated by Clara V. Ulrich, Route 2, Britton, and has been in the family since 1853.

Get some real tools for the little boy who likes to build things, say child development specialists at Michigan State University. A real hammer may seem large but he can work better with it than with the very light toys. An adult often has trouble pounding a nail in with a toy hammer.

Helping Santa's Helpers

Good old Santa has a staff of helpers, as everybody knows, for even as magical a man as he could hardly be expected to do such a tremendous job without some assistance . . . But do you know where his helpers get a lot of their help? Why, from the thousands upon thousands of trucks that daily transport raw materials, manufactured goods, farm products — everything it takes not only for day-to-day living but for a Merry Christmas, too. You can bet your boots that everything you see around the tree on Christmas morning traveled by truck for many miles before it got into Santa's pack . . . Merry Christmas, everybody!

Library

"GATES OF FEAR"

By Barnaby Conrad

With zest and encyclopedic knowledge of the spectacle, the author conducts us on a tour of the great bullrings of the world and gives us behind-the-scenes, first hand accounts of the great matadors. Many illustrations.

"CORNFLAKE CRUSADE"

By Gerald Carson

This is the captivating and amusing account of that 19th century evangelical movement of food fadists which brought ready-to-eat breakfast foods into every American home and put Battle Creek on the world map.

"THE WHITE MOUSE"

By Russell Braddon

The White Mouse was the highly inappropriate code name by which the enemy Germans knew Nancy Wake. She was beautiful and accustomed to luxury, but when the time came she blew a bridge or cut down a German patrol with verve and skill.

"THE OLD MAN AND THE BOY"

By Robert Ruark

"MR. BARUCH"

By Margaret Coit

For nearly 50 years the name of Bernard M. Baruch has been almost as well known as that of the President of the United States, and yet he has never held an elective office. A capitalistic financier consulted by the Soviet Union, a patriot who has influenced the governments of Europe, the Democrat who has planned and managed great concentrations of power in the federal government, these and many other things are Bernard Baruch.

BOOK OF THE SEVEN SEAS

By Peter Freuchen

A wonderful volume filled with story, love, and legend, with history and fact, with myths and strange tales, with many illustrations.

RURAL GUESTS

At the recent City-Rural meeting of Tecumseh Kiwanis club, guests included Larry Reichenbough, Herman Dick, Jr., Arthur Eaton, Charles Bishop, Clarence Burkhard, Erwin Pennington and Rev. Gruber of Brooklyn.

BEATS THE BEST OF THE LOW-PRICE THREE— FOR LESS MONEY!

IT'S BIGGER—with a whopping 122" wheelbase cradling roomy stretch-out interiors. IT'S MORE POWERFUL—they all fall far short of Pontiac's jeweled-action Tempest 395 power.

IT'S MORE ADVANCED—bringing to the low-price field the boldest engineering in history: Aero-Frame stability . . . Quadra-Poise roadability . . . Circles-of-Steel safety. And Pontiac provides color-coordinated interiors and wall-to-wall carpeting as standard equipment.

IT'S MORE CAR—with scores of "extras" at no extra cost—oversize tires, Safety Plate Glass all around, crank-operated ventipanes, to name a few. So why buy a smaller car when Pontiac gives you more for less? Check into it and see.

CAST, DIRECTORS CAN TAKE A BOW

Seniors Score in 'Torchbearers'

By MARY SEAGER

The senior play, "The Torchbearers," by George Kelly (Grace's uncle) was put on Friday and Saturday.

This satire on amateur dramatics was particularly well-chosen and staged.

The cast included Darrell Lowry, Janice Wagner, Esther Stutesman, Jackie Rucker, Larry Robison, Nancy Dinse, Ken Ipson, Tom Price, Joyce Wilbar, Gary Hanna, Duane Locke and Lois Kiser.

She had entered into the production because the female lead's husband had died.

Mrs. Clara Shepherd (Lois) stepped down in favor of Paula Ritter (Esther) because it was thought to be improper to act during mourning. At least in the Twenties it was.

☆

SOON THE impresario Mrs. J. Duro Pampinelli (Jackie) appears closely trailed by her willing worker Mr. Spindler (Larry). Then Mrs. Fell, (Nancy), Mr. Hossefrosse, (Ken), Mr. Spearing, (Tom), and Miss McCrickett (Joyce), descended on the now thoroughly disgusted Mr. Ritter.

The next night at the Huchy-Kutchy Hall things go as might be expected—terribly for the characters and uproariously for the audience. The gruesome details will be omitted.

The last act is Ritter's nasty post mortem of the play. Paula is reduced to tears and her arty friends are dreadfully insulted.

Darrell Lowry was bitterly sarcastic with the right touch of boredom at the antics of his frail, giggly wife Esther Stutesman.

Spindler as played by Larry Robison was as stiff as a poker when flapper Joyce Wilbar cuddled up.

Nelly Fell (Nancy Dinse), was the perfect flirtatious widow of 50.

TOM PRICE AND Garry Hanna politely flirted with the flapper as Teddy Spearing and Ralph Twiller. Duane Locke was properly exasperated as the stage manager.

Lois Kiser made the widow's grief at not being in the amateur play seem real. By far the dominant character was Mrs. J. Duro Pampinelli who was very well handled by Jackie Rucker.

The play as a whole was well acted, staged and directed. The costumes and sets were masterpieces. The reconstruction of the clothes and life of the Twenties must have been a lot of work.

☆

BUT NO PLAY would be able to go on without the aid of committees.

Here they are:

Stage Crew: Ray Sluyter, Jack Bryan and Bob Hirsch.

Lighting: Ed Rozelle and Ron Lewis.

Posters: Sandra Irelan.

Sound Effects: Dick French.

The senior class, the directors, the cast, and the committees should take a bow.

Restless Sheep Can Be Victims of Mites

Your sheep restless after being moved around?

It may be a sign that scab-causing mites are bothering them, says Clayton C. Ingerson, county agricultural agent.

Mites become active as soon as sheep are housed for the winter.

Other symptoms in addition to restlessness, include unusual amount of biting with wool sometimes showing up in the teeth, and stained areas on sides of sheep where biting or kicking indicate scratching.

☆

IF A SHEEP raiser or lamb feeder suspects that sheep scab may be present in the flock, he should contact a veterinarian, county agriculture agent or the state veterinarian's office at Lansing.

A member of the state veterinarian staff will visit the farm and examine the sheep at no charge to the owner. He will take scrapings of the skin and examine for mites.

If mites are found, the flock will be quarantined and dipped under the supervision of the state veterinarian's office.

☆

LAMBS WHICH are ready for market will be permitted to move market without dipping.

Infected sheep will be rechecked in 30 days and if found to be free of scab, they will be released from quarantine.

Everything will be done to help the sheep raiser and to cause him as little inconvenience as posible. Any loss or inconvenience will be far less than if the scab infection were allowed to continue in the flock, Blank says.

Damp Barns Is Due To Poor Ventilation

Moisture beads hanging on the ceiling of a barn mean the ventilating system isn't doing it's job, says Merle Esmay, agricultural engineer at Michigan State University.

Excess moisture not only contributes to poor health of livestock housed in the barn, but it shortens the life of the building and makes it an uncomfortable place to work.

Many farmers depend on open windows and doors for fresh air circulation. But Esmay feels this is not good enough. Sudden drops in temperature or shifts in wind direction may cause cold, dangerous drafts in the barn.

☆

FOR BEST BARN ventilation, Esmay recommends a positive system that includes:

1—Reasonably tight and well insulated walls.

2—Fresh air intakes.

3—Exhaust fans on the leeward side of the building so fans won't have to buck prevailing winds.

If you don't have a positive system, Esmay suggests you make slots in haymow floor where it meets barn wall on the side opposite the fans.

If construction prevents slots, a series of one and a half inch holes in the mow floor close to the wall will work. Fix mow so hay won't block air movement.

Such a system allows tempered air to be drawn from the now into the barn so it can pick up moisture before it is exhausted by the fans. Fans should be big enough to move 100 cubic feet of air per minute for each 1,000 pounds of livestock housed in the barn.

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Councilman Schlegel and supported by Councilman Purkey.

WHEREAS the replacement of the bridge spanning the River Raisin on North Evans Street, said bridge being otherwise known as the Red Pond Bridge and being designated by the Michigan State Highway Department as Project B 2 OF 46-21-5 C-2, is now pending; and

WHEREAS the estimated cost of said project is $196,000.00 of which amount the sum of $30,000.00 is the aliquot portion which the City of Tecumseh must pay; and

WHEREAS for the purpose of defraying the City's share of the cost of said bridge construction, the City desires to borrow money and issue its bonds in anticipation of the receipt of state-collected taxes to be returned to the City for major street purposes pursuant to Act No. 51, Michigan Public Acts of 1951, as amended; and

WHEREAS there has not been heretofore specially allocated and pledged for the payment of indebtedness, any portion of the moneys to be so derived by the City from State collected taxes returned to the City for highway purposes pursuant to law; and

WHEREAS the total amount received by the City from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund pursuant to said Act. No. 51, Michigan Public Acts of 1951, as amended, for its Major Street System, in the five years immediately preceding the contemplated borrowing is more than sufficient to comply with all the requirements specified in Section 4 of Act 175, Public Acts of Michigan of 1952 as amended; and

WHEREAS Notice of Intent to Issue Bonds was duly published in the Tecumseh Herald, a newspaper of general circulation within the City of Tecumseh, on October 10, October 17, October 24, and October 31.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. That this Council hereby reaffirms its action heretofore taken for the making of the above mentioned major bridge construction and for the joint participation of the City in paying the cost thereof and hereby adopts and confirms the estimate of $30,000.00 as the City's share of such cost.

2. This Council hereby determines to borrow under the provisions of Act No. 175 of the Public Acts of 1952, (MSA 5.3190 et seq), the sum of Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars in anticipation of the receipt of moneys to be derived from State collected taxes returned to said City for major bridge construction pursuant to law, for the purpose of defraying the City's share of the cost of said bridge improvement.

3. The Bonds of said City of Tecumseh, aggregating the principal sum of Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) and no/100 Dollars shall be issued for the purpose of defraying a part of the City's share of the cost of said bridge construction, said Bonds to be dated 15 January 1958; to be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 15, both inclusive; to be in the denomination of $2,000.00 each; to bear interest at a rate or rates to be hereafter determined, not exceeding four and one-half per cent (4½) per annum payable on 15 July 1958, and thereafter semi-annually on the 15th day of January and July in each year; and to mature on the 15th day of July in each year as follows: $2,000.00 in each of the years 1959 through 1973. Bonds shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the City, in inverse numerical order, on any one or more interest payment dates on and after 15 July, 1959, at the par value thereof and accrued interest, plus a premium in accordance with the following schedule, to-wit:

$20.00 if called to be redeemed on or after 15 July 1961 but prior to 15 July 1964.

$15.00 if called to be redeemed on or after 15 July 1964 but prior to 15 July, 1966.

$10.00 if called to be redeemed on or after 15 July, 1966.

Notice of redemption shall be given to the holders of the Bonds to be redeemed, by publication of such Notice not less than Thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for redemption at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the City of Tecumseh, Michigan, and the Michigan Investor. Bonds so called for redemption shall not bear interest after the date fixed for redemption, provided funds are on hand with the paying agent to redeem the same. All Bonds shall have proper coupons attached thereto evidencing interest to their respective dates of maturity.

ANOTHER IN AREA CHURCH SERIES

Drain Swamps, Build a Church

It was in the 1860's that a few German families settled north of Blissfield—then a vast waterlogged, inhospitable, forbidding swamp. Now it is among the most productive land in the midwest.

Though lacking money for the more abundant necessities of life, these Prussian emigrants were highly resourceful, and possessed an indomitable will to do and to conquer.

By sweat and brawn, the swampy wilds were drained, woodlands cleared, brush and other obstacles removed, roads charted and cabins built.

CONDITIONS improved and an era of great development and expansion followed, so that where once stood crudely erected quarters promiscously dotting ten, twenty and sometimes forty-acre patches, much after the manner of the old German 'Dorf', where once the sicle, the sythe and cradle held sway, and where once the frogs in the quagmire lulled both old and young to sleep, now well planned farms, fine residences, landscaped lawns, commodious outbuildings, up-to-date machinery, modern equipments, improved highways, abundance and wealth.

Aside from their family altar and home devotion, they wanted a place where they could meet to be refreshed, strengthened and comforted by the preaching of the word through the pastor.

Rev. William Kroenke conducted services in private homes, later a nearby public school house served as meeting place.

AUGUST 28, 1870, Immanuel's of North Blissfield was organized with 16 families, accepting the Bible and the Lutheran Confessions as the only source and rule and doctrine and practice.

Eight years after its organization on September 29, 1878, Immanuels could dedicate its first church to the service of the Triune God. It was a structure 24 x 40, built substantially and properly equipped for its purpose.

In 1894, Rev. F. W. Herz was called for a ten-year term of able leadership. The congregation showed steady growth and progress, growing to some 80 families. The need of a larger house to worship was evident.

Th congregation decided on another building program, the third in 20 years. The frame structure measured 36 x 76, was calculated to serve indefinitely.

THE OLD CHURCH, offering ample room, was equipped as a training camp for the youth of the church, while the parsonage from here on was to serve the needs of the pastor and his family.

In the fall of 1904, Rev. A. A. Harrer assumed duties here. He served six years, saw many improvements, such as remodeling, drilling of a well, building the present cellar and a sizeable barn.

Rev. C. Lemster served from 1910-1919.

With the arrival of Rev. H. Schalkhauser, the English language was introduced. There were two English services a month.

The Sunday School was re-established, and the Luther League organized and the fiftieth anniversary observed. He served from 1919-1923.

Rev. Bruno Brueckner, a graduate of Debuc, Iowa, came next.

On November 4, 1926, a disasterous fire destroyed the church. Everything was destroyed.

With energetic leadership of their pastor, the present edifice 36 x 71 was erected at a total cost of $35,000. The cornerstone was laid July 27, 1927.

Rev. Brueckner served from 1923-1935.

DURING THE 75 years existence, there have been recorded on the records of the church 964 baptisms, 216 marriages, 316 deaths, 670 admitted to communicant membership by confirmation.

Rev. William Weinlander, pastor since 1935 to the present time, did much for the community. Last year he baptized 630 members, confirmed 383.

Christmas Dessert Party Is Easy To Plan, Serve

Keep your party plans simple, advises Anita Dean, extension specialist in foods at Michigan State University.

A dessert party is especially easy to plan and serve. Remember your guests have already eaten their dinner at home so keep servings of rich desserts small.

MAKE YOUR favorite cake, pie or torte. If possible choose a dessert which can be made ahead of time.

This gives you more time to visit with your friends. After all that's the real reason for having a party.

Appetites are apt to dwindle as the Christmas season progresses and too many rich foods have been served. You may decide to serve an attractive fruit salad with finger sandwiches or a fruit and cheese plate.

VFW Members Children Enjoy Annual Party

Games and stunts for both young and old with prizes and the appearance of Santa with a gift for each child preceded the potluck supper at 6 p.m. Baked ham, rolls, coffee and milk were provided by the Auxiliary.

After supper, Harry Duncan came to show Marda Gene's sides taken at her bird feeder. The Auxiliary expressed appreciation to the Duncan family.

Alfalfa Seed Price Going Up

Nelson says that research tests show that Vernal is a bargain even if it costs $10 a bushel more than certified Ranger. Yield tests show Vernal can out-yield Ranger by one-half ton hay per acre a year.

☆

VERNAL IS A leafy, dark green, fine-stemed plant that is winter hardy and is more resistant to leaf spot than is Ranger.

Because Vernal is higher yielding and a little more expensive, Nelson recommends that farmers use it in hay fields which will be kept for at least three years.

Lenawee County Falling Behind in TB Giving

Friday is "Do It Day" in Lenawee county.

That's the day when all county residents who have not yet answered their Christmas Seal letters are asked to do so.

"Do It Day" is intended to step up the county's lagging Christmas Seal sale, the Michigan Tuberculosis Association explained.

Although the over-all state drive for TB funds is slightly ahead of last year's drive, the county is one of the few areas where Seal sale contributions have fallen behind.

So far residents of the county have given $3,366.27 this year as compared to $3,532.50 in 1956 for the same period of time.

Ninety-four per cent of the money given by Michigan residents remains in the state. The other 6% helps finance the national tuberculosis program of research and education.

Sewing Basket Is Treasure Chest for Wrappings

Your sewing basket can be a treasure chest for Christmas gift-wrapping ideas, says Jane Graff, home furnishings extension specialist at Michigan State University.

You can use yarn, buttons and even hooks and eyes to make your gifts extra special this year.

Yarn is wonderfully versatile. Miss Graff suggests making a Christmas tree outline with green yarn or using a cluster of yarn pompons instead of a bow on your package.

Buttons are nice for a gift of clothing for the man in your house. String rows of them together with yarn, use large ones for a border or make a design that's all your own out of them.

On a narrow gift package for the "gal" members of the family, you may like to run a single strip of ribbon down the center of the package and glue large hooks and eyes across it.

Nazarenes To Celebrate Fiftieth Year

By REV. DALE HARVEY

Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene will be among the 4,500 congregations of the international Protestant church that will pray at special Watch Night services around the world on Tuesday, December 31.

It opens the denomination's golden anniversary year.

Tecumseh Nazarenes will cooperate with Ridgeway Nazarenes at the Ridgeway church beginning at 10:30 p.m. New Year's Eve.

STARTING WITH a union of 288 churches and 10,414 members in 1908, the Nazarenes have grown to 4,500 churches and 300,000 members in 1958, in the U.S., Canada, British Isles and Australia and missionary work in 33 world areas.

The denomination stands for the spread and conservation of the Wesleyan doctrine and experience of entire sanctification, or heart holiness.

Among U.S. Protestant denominations, it is thirtieth in membership, fifteenth in Sunday School enrollment and ninth in its publishing house sales.

NAZARENES consistently have been among the first five denominations in stewardship or per capita giving. Members believe in and practice tithing. Per capita giving in 1957 will exceed $133.

Christmas Dinner for Elderly Pair Will Be Club Gift

Plans were made to take a Christmas dinner to an elderly couple by the Tecumseh Inquirers Extension Club when they met for dinner at the Rock Inn Tuesday evening.

They also made plans to give toys and clothing to another family with children.

Refreshments were served by the hostess in conclusion.

Mrs. John Stoner will be the hostess for the next meeting.

THE LONG and SHORT of it

BY TOM RIORDAN

THE UNFAMILIAR WINTER sun sent its welcome rays onto the soldier and his wounded comrade.

They were pinned down by a German machine gun, laying in an open field with a few feet of turf to protect them.

It was December 23, 1944.

The soldier wasn't thinking about Christmas then. He was praying that darkness would come quickly.

Eventually it did and with it the litter bearers. They carefully picked up the man who had been hit.

The soldier struggled to his feet. They were numb, feeling as if they had been asleep a hundred years.

Wearily he trudged back to friendly faces. Someone told him to report to the battalion aid station.

The medical captain, speaking in a hurried voice, said the soldier was being sent back to the hospital for a few days rest. The all-day session had capped several months in almost constant combat positions.

The ambulance ride lasted several hours, with stops at various points to pick up wounded. The soldier felt strange, he had no bandage.

It wasn't until the day after he arrived — December 24 — that the soldier noticed the rather elegant surroundings, elegent by comparison with the usual infantry environment.

Late that afternoon, the women gave gifts — shaving kits, tooth brushes, candy — but the soldier didn't get one. He and the others in the ambulance had arrived after the women had made a head count.

The soldier didn't mind in the least, he was beginning to think of Christmas, not in terms of gifts, but as the birthday of Christ.

"There will be a midnight Mass in the chapel. Those wanting to go can tell the ward boy and he'll wake you."

Almost all those who could walk asked to be called.

"It's time for midnight Mass."

There was a steady line of GIs filing quietly into the chapel.

The only illumination was provided by the candles on the altar. The flickering glow of candles never appeared so beautiful, the soldier thought.

Several batteries of 155 mm artillery pieces were located nearby and each time they fired the muzzle blasts lighted the area for a fraction of a second and shown through the stained glass like automobile headlights from a car hurridly turning nearby.

The words were in German, but the hymn was unmistabable, it was "Silent Night'.

These were the nuns who normally staffed the hospital and were also attending the Mass. How striking their singing was. This was probably as moving and heart-rending as any Christmas Mass ever said.

For the soldier there hadn't been a gift or a card — yet it still rates as his finest Christmas.

Yes, it was my grandest Christmas.

Tipton Man Speaks on Power of Prayer

Fifty-four members and friends of the Washtenaw Organic Farm and Garden club met December 16.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Zell McCarty of Tecumseh.

STUDENT PROJECT — Linda Spooner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Spooner, places an ornament on the beautiful Christmas tree at Patterson school. Purchase and decoration of the tree was an all-student project. The school's 430 pupils each donated a penny towards buying it, then everyone placed some type of decoration on the tree.

Worthy Grand Matron Entertained

Officers and members of the Tecumseh Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, entertained their worthy grand matron, Mrs. Betty Clark, with a tea in the Masonic Temple dining room December 19.

Guests were welcomed by the worthy matron, Mrs. Melvin Smith.

☆

THE MEETING opened with distinguished guests, including Mrs. Clark, Dorothy Crittenden, chairman of Obituaries of the Grand chapter; worthy matrons from Blissfield, Clinton and Deerfield; worthy patrons from Blissfield and Clinton; Mrs. Kenton Hunt, chaplain and Mrs. Chester Corbett, organist of the Lenawee-Monroe County Association, introduced.

The group retired to the dining room where refreshments were served from a table in keeping with the Christmas season.

Announcement was made of the officers Christmas party to be held Sunday evening, December 29 at 6:30 in the home of the worthy matron and patron, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith on Murray Drive.

They and their classmates put on a Nativity scene, under direction of sixth grade teachers, Mrs. E. J. Crawford and Mrs. John Becker. The program attracted an overflow audience.

Before Capacity Crowds

Two delightful school Christmas programs—one at Patterson and the other at St. Elizabeth's—drew full houses Thursday evening.

Youngsters from Patterson's kindergarten, fourth and sixth grades, under direction of Mrs. Hilda Caterina and Mrs. Bertram Updike, presented a program of music and song.

Sister Ann Xavier was in charge of the Catholic school's festivities, which included music by the 59-voice third-through-eighth mixed choir and a play, "The Candle in the Window," performed by seventh and eighth graders.

Following selections by the Patterson kindergarten rhythm band and Christmas songs sung by the fourth grades, a pageant, "The Story Beautiful," was presented by the sixth grades with David Dustin as narrator.

Mrs. C. O. Bailey and Mrs. Homer Colson are teachers of the fourth grade students.

Mrs. Updike is the kindergarten teacher.

Many Michigan dairy farms are undergoing a revolution. Ten to 12 cow dairy herds are rapidly disappearing, while more dairy farmers are milking herds of at least 30 cows, say Michigan State University farm economists.

Check over the heart of the irrigation system—the pump and power unit. Michigan State University agricultural engineers say by doing the job now, the system will be in top shape for most efficient use next summer.

Farmers are expected to use more credit during 1958 than they did in 1957, but they'll probably have to pay more for it, according to Michigan State University agricultural economists.

ANOTHER IN AREA CHURCH SERIES

Nearly 1,000 Attend Mass

By REV. THOMAS COLLINS
Pastor, St. Elizabeth

The Catholic Church came to Detroit with Cadillac when he chose it as the site of Fort Ponchartrain and his settlement in 1701.

By 1708 he had already built its first Church—St. Anne's.

But the French were not to control the destinies of the Northwest Territory.

Half way through the century the English held sway—it was the War of 1812 that determined the future of Michigan . . . and it was in that war that the British and Chief Tecumseh and his warriors were vanquished and the name of Perry and his victory at Put-in-Bay turned the tide for the Americans.

☆

IT WAS DURING those years too that the name of Father Richard was famous in Detroit. Pastor of St. Anne's parish, member of Congress, he was co-founder of the University of Michigan. He contributed much to the history of the State in the nineteenth century.

In the epoch of road-building that was an aftermath of the War of 1812, it was Father Richard who, during his term in Congress, fostered the "Chicago Road,"—which ran from Detroit to Ypsilanti and Tecumseh, then westward through the southermost tier of counties of the Territory.

The French had settled the east shore of Michigan, but the heavily timbered vacant lands brought new immigrants.

Behind the first line of settlement lay the three counties of Oakland, Lenawee and Washtenaw, and it was in 1824 that our own Tecumseh was founded.

The first priest who made excursions to Catholic settlements in Lenawee County was Father Simon Saenderl who travelled from Monroe westward.

This was in 1845.

☆

WHILE THE Cambridge mission (now called Irish Hills) had been settled by Irish pioneers, whose stone church goes back to 1854, and Clinton became a Mission of Adrian in 1852, Tecumseh remained for many years a mission served by priests from Manchester, Clinton, and Irish Hills.

This served the small number of Catholic families till 1947, when Father Michael G. Collins was appointed first resident pastor.

Almost immediately, Father Michael G. Collins began to plan the building of a new and adequate church.

In August of the same year he was already negotiating with realtors the possible purchase of the Hayden Mills, (now Talon, Inc.) with a view to making alterations so that the building could serve as Church and also as a school building.

In March of 1948 he obtained permission from the Cardinal to buy approximately nine acres at N. Union and Brown streets for the sum of $6,800.

☆

IN AUGUST of the same year, he wrote asking permission to make a master plan for a four-room school building to be erected on the newly acquired property.

The church was the first new building to be erected and on July 16, 1950, the cornerstone was laid. In May of 1952, the completed church was blessed by Edward Cardinal Mooney.

In June of 1953 after six vigorous years of pioneering and making his parish a solid part of the community Father Michael G. Collins, was transferred to Harper Woods to found a new parish, where under the patronage of St. Peter, he has already erected a temporary church and 12-room school.

It has been the lot of the present pastor to continue the expansion of the growing Catholic parish of St. Elizabeth.

In January of 1954 ground was broken for a four-room school with auditorium, and in September of the same year it opened its doors to 150 students.

Four Sisters of St. Dominic from Adrian staffed the new parochial school and occupied a nine-room convent, completed at the same time as the school.

A two-room addition to the school was ready in October of 1955 and the enrollment had grown to 225.

☆

IN MARCH OF the present year a new parish rectory was talked of, planned and built and occupied in September. The Rectory provides living quarters and offices for two priests.

Present value of the parish plant is about $330,000.

Census cards are on file for about 325 families, and attendance at Sunday Masses grows closer to 1,000.

Britton Legion Post Gathers Honors

The article is as follows:

This could be called a success story. It is.

Only a little over a year ago in the summer of 1956, the members of the Glenn H. Daykin Post No. 155 held a meeting to decide whether or not to turn in the post charter.

The post had received its permanent charter on January 20, 1932. Since that time the post had had its ups and downs. And now it was definitely down.

The members decided to try it for one more year. Carl Luegge was elected commander for 1956-'57. He and his co-workers went to work and contacted prospects from the veterans' population in the community. The result was an all time high for the post at that time with 53 members.

This year Dean Downing was elected commander . . . and with the assistance of past commander Luegge and adjutant Willard Exelby . . . the spark of enthusiasm continued to generate.

To date the post has signed up 63 members for another all time high and is now eligible for a certificate of most distinguished service from National Headquarters, an honor ribbon from Department Headquarters and desk flag set from the Department Commander.

But more than that . . . the post has gained the respect of the community and has enhanced the prestige of The American Legion.

Made a door-to-door canvass in the community for funds to assist the widow and child of state trooper Dugall Pellot (one of the troopers of the Clinton State Police Post mortally wounded by a gun-wielding criminal). The collection amounted to $121. The post received a letter of appreciation from State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

DON'T GAMBLE— WITH YOUR HEALTH

When you buy cure-alls from an itinerant peddler the stakes are tragically high. The peddler may, in effect, be risking your health for a fast profit.

Since health is your most precious gift, rely on the community health team in the event of illness.

They Learned Their Lesson Well

We also comment their leader, Howard Wilson of 708 Outer drive, who has worked long hours teaching members of Troop 73 many worthwhile things, not the least of these being safety and first aid.

His efforts paid off handsomely Friday when the young men, Mr. Wilson's son Mike and John Oberlin, used knowledge gained in Scouting to pull a friend out of the Raisin River following an ice skating mishap.

Mike and John knew that when someone cracks through thin ice, the rescuer can't get too close or he also will end up in the icy water.

They learned through Scouting that a plank, tree limb or broom handle should be slid to the victim, who can grasp it and be pulled to safety.

In Friday's accident, the boys located a broom used to sweep the ice for skating. It was perfect.

Twenty minues later, as Mike had more opportunity to think what might have happened, he began to shake.

Thanks to the training Mike and John had, they were calm and poised at the time of the accident and went about the rescue like a couple of veterans. They saved the time for being frightened until later.

A complete report of the boys' quick action will be sent to the Wolverine Scout Council and also the National Council.

There is a good chance that the two Tecumseh Scouts will be decorated with special heroism medals—and certainly no two could be more deserving.

These Men Work for Our City

A non-profit organization is going to try and reap some profits for our community.

It's a group of public-spirited men who are using their own funds to bet on the industrial future of the area.

The return on their investment—if any—of buying land for new plants will probably be minute, even should new industry locate here.

These men realize they and thousands of others could benefit indirectly in future years should new industry locate in Tecumseh, on the land they have or at other locations.

A town can be grateful that it has people who will express their confidence where it often times shows the most sincerity — in the pocketbook.

Pvt. David Merillat Has Combat Training

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. — Marine Pvt. David R. Merillat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence N. Merillat of 504 Orchard Lane, Tecumseh, completed four weeks of individual combat training at the Marine Corps Base here.

The course included the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications and advanced schooling on weapons.

Manger Is Unveiled During 'Silent Night'

A unique scene of "Christ in the Manger" created by Mrs. Donald Cobb was unveiled during the singing of "Silent Night" by the Chancel choir Sunday evening, December 15, when the two choirs of the Baptist Church presented their annual program of Christmas music.

The artistry and lighting created an ethereal effect that will long be remembered by those viewing it. An arrangement of organ music called "Yuletide Echos" was presented by Mrs. Herbert Dillon, who also accompanied the choirs. Mrs. Harley H. McConnell is the director of the Chancel choir.

The church was well filled when the choirs began the processional, singing with the congregation, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing."

☆

THE BETHLEHEM Choir under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Brooks sang, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "There's a Song in the Air."

The Cantata began with the singing of "In The Starlight" and "The Angel Song" with Mrs. Ed Gannaway singing the solo.

"O Hasten with Rejoicing," "What Child is This?" and 'Humbly We Praise Him" preceded the Bethlehem Choirs rendition of "Away in a Manger" and "The Christ Child's Stable."

Warren Peck was the soloist for the anthem, "The Magi" and also "Silent Night" when the scene was unveiled.

☆

"HIS STAR IS in the Sky" was followed by "Come Like the Shepherds" with Mr. Peck again taking the solo part.

'Come Ye with Carols" concluded the program before the benediction pronounced by the Rev. Blair Bashore, pastor of the church.

when it comes to thanking our many kind friends and patrons and wishing them the best of everything throughout the holiday season!

Committee Works on United Fund for Lenawee County

"Give where you work, it works where you live." This is the principle of a Lenawee United Fund, Howard White, chairman of the citizen's development committee says.

Mr. White, vice president of Revco Manufacturing Company of Deerfield, and a citizen's committee have been organizing the proposed county fund for a year and a half.

The county fund development is almost inevitable because of the high mobility in Lenawee and the resultant problems it presents to local community chests, he said.

There are seven cgommunity chests in Lenawee—in Adrian, Blissfield, Tecumseh, Clinton, Deerfelid township, Hudson and Morenci.

☆

EACH HAS one problem in common. It is that many employees do not reside in the community in which they are employed, he said.

The contributor must decide which community is most deserving of support, the community in which he lives, or the community in which he works.

His decision makes it more difficult for one community chest to raise its goal, Mr. White said.

Expanded services have increased the cost of voluntary social service agencies. Some of these agencies, which do not share in the chest, raise funds on a county basis.

The financial potential offered by a county fund could attract these organizations who presumably "go it alone" because they can raise more funds on their own, he said.

The county fund would be able to raise increased funds by being able to reach all the potential support in the county.

☆

UNDER THE proposed county fund plan, a board of directors consisting of members from all parts of the county would determine the organization policy.

In communities with a chest program, the chest would have three representatives on the county board.

Other leaders in the county would be members of committees of the county fund. The proposed committees include campaign, budget and admissions, quota and public relations.

The budget and admissions committee would have the major responsibility of reviewing applications from new agencies for the county.

The fund board would maintain an "open door" policy consistent with its "one campaign for all" objective for all legitimate health, welfare or recreation agencies, Mr. White said.

This committee would decide on admissions of state and national agencies operating on a county chapter plan.

Admission of local agencies would be determined by the individual local community chest groups.

Budgeting of funds for the local agencies also would be maintained by the individual budget and admissions of the local chest units, he said.

Skill of Dressmaker Turns Knotty Problem into Thing of Beauty

"What in the world will I wear it with?" she asked herself.

Then an idea struck.

The gala occasion for which it was worn was the Annual Hospital Ball.

Free Booklet on Income Tax Is Available For Farmers

They say if at least two-thirds of your gross income is from farming and your taxable year begins on January 1st, you have two choices:

1. File your return and pay the tax due by February 15th; or

2. File an estimate of the tax due and pay it January 15th, then you wait till April 15th, to file the tax return itself.

So, if you don't file the estimate and pay the tax by January 15, you must file your income tax return and pay your tax by February 15.

☆

Church Installs 'Basilican Bells'

A Schukmerich "Basilican" Bells instrument, described as the most complete liturgical bell instrument ever developed, was installed at St. Joseph's Shrine in the Irish Hills.

The "Bascilian" is the instrument which was orginally designed for the new North American College at Rome, Italy, to conform exactly with the liturgical Bells of St. Peter's, Vatican City, from the standpoint of tonality and program.

THE BELL TONES are produced by miniature bel ltone generators of traditional bronze bell metal which are struck by metal hammers.

These minute exaction bell tones are then amplified over 1,000,000 times by means of specially designed electronic equipment, producing true bell tones having all the depth and richness of cast bells of massive proportions.

Designed to provide the ultimate in automatic bell functions, the bells of Schulmerich "Basilican" instrument are controlled by a 5-minute interval, 24-hour, seven-day calendared program clock.

Once set, this clock selects and programs the proper bells for the Angelus, weekday Mass and Sunday Mass.

All the six bells are provided with individual motorstrikers and can be varied in their speed of tolling or swinging, in any combination.

☆

THIS WILL permit the playing of hymns or other musical selections for special programs of tower music.

Automatic daily programs on the "Coronation Carillon will be provided by means of an automatic roll player which is included.

Made of durabe plastic material, the rolls are formed as an endless belt and the Roll Player can be set to play a single desired selection or an extended program.

'Mike Won His Way Into Our Hearts'

King of the Barnyard

By GLADYS MEYER

As we rolled into the driveway we saw him. A big beautiful white rooster, strutting about proudly, crowing lustily, announcing to everyone that he was now in full command—truly king of the barnyard.

This was Mike.

But we remembered him when he wasn't quite so sure of himself.

We remembered that rainy day when he came to our house by way of a small boy who had received him through a friend at Patterson kindergarten.

He was tucked inside a raincoat and very carefully handled so as not to get wet or cold.

Little peep-peeps told us that he was happy to be in a warm, dry place and on the other hand the family was thrilled to have him.

A box from the East Side market was his new home. We placed it in the living room. He was fed the very best chicken feed that can be bought from Hayden Mills (Which is naturally the best that can be bought anywhere.)

☆

Soon his wing feathers began to grow and he found that he was able to fly right out of his box onto a coffee table and then to a soft couch.

But then a taller creature would dash in and grab him and return him to his box, and very soon a bigger box was found, also a wire screen for a cover.

We mustn't forget to mention the little boy whose job it was to change the paper in the bottom of the box.

There was a lot of discussion as to whether it was a boy or a girl. We didn't know how to tell. We never could actually until he grew a comb.

He got so big that he was moved to the back yard as soon as the weather permitted. Every child in the neighborhood helped us protect him from cats or other small animals that would want to eat him.

☆

THE TALLER ONES wanted to find another place for him to live—a farm where he could roam and have the company of other feathered friends. It was very hard for the little ones to let him go.

We tried to place him with a lady who kept hens. That was before we knew what sex he was. She wouldn't take the chance.

Finally we took him to our Uncle Frank's farm in Ney, Ohio.

There was an obstacle there too, for Uncle Frank had a rooster and he was not ready to move over for such a novice as Mike, who had never even seen another chicken.

☆

THE TWO HAD a climactic meeting, and I'm sorry to say that Mike got the worst of that one, but the old rooster took a liking to him, and realizing that he was getting pretty old, made way for the young blood.

Whether it was the survival of the fittest, we will never know. He adjusted quickly.

He is the rooster now. Uncle Frank learned to love Mike as much as we did and he's not going to put him in the pot, ever!

Health Study Is Rolling Right Along

As the Tecumseh Community Health Study swung into December, 5,368 area persons had been coded by University of Michigan experts. This is just one point in the massive study, which will continue for five years. Majority of folks in the study area have been most cooperative, with only 100 families out of 2,401 refusing to take part. Trained "M" personnel are making regular visits to the community to conduct special interviews, as depicted in the accompanying pictures. Folks are reminded to send regular Health Study form to Ann Arbor promptly.

Scout Year Highlighted With Annual Party

A highlight of the Scouting year for both Boy Scouts and parents is the annual Christmas party, which this year included the annual roll call and inspection for Troop 73.

The event was held Monday evening at the Union Hall, preceded by a potluck supper with each patrol supplying food and decoration for its own tables.

They were Orval Collins, executive from the Lenapee district; Ralph Sherwood, district commissioner; Francis Packard and Erwin Richardson, who also hold district positions.

John Dunbar, institutional representative and Barry Packard, who holds top rank in all three phases of Scouting, were also introduced.

☆

MRS. FRED OBERLIN accompanied the group as they sang several appropriate Christmas songs led by Mr. Richardson.

Ronnie Jones, animal industry.

Murray Richardson, wood carving.

☆

FOLLOWING THE awards, the inspection was made by Mr. Collins, Mr. Sherwood and Mr. Richardson.

Mr. Collins gave a brief to-the-point explanation of the roll call and inspection, which is to precede the signing of the charter for another year. Mr. Sherwood also spoke to the group.

The next committee meeting will be held January 13 at the home of Robert King. All fathers are asked to attend at 8 p.m.

Also Mr. Wilson announced that there will be a troop meeting December 26 as usual because of the pressing need to prepare for winter camp.

Tom Dickinson spoke for the boys and their parents when he said, "We are very lucky to have Mr. Wilson for our leader and his wife who lends her constant support to our troop and we would like to play a trick on them since Mr. Wilson so often plays tricks on us."

☆

HE PROCEEDED to blindfold the surprised Scoutmaster and his wife and placed a Santa's boot in his hands, while he gave a card to Mrs. Wilson and led her to the other side of the room.

When the blindfolds were removed the two could see the string of 28 one-dollar bills that extended between them, amid the applause from the audience.

Game Fish Now Can Be Bought To Stock Ponds

LANSING — State law providing for the propagation and sale of trout has been broadened to include several other species of game fish, effective January 1, 1958.

The new law, passed by the 1957 legislature, will allow licensed game fish breeders to rear and sell largemouth and smallmouth bass, bluegills, three species of sunfish, northern pike and muskellunge — in addition to brook trout and rainbow trout.

Before issuing a game fish breeders license, however, the Conservation Department will inspect the proposed facilities to insure that private waters are used and the entry of any wild fish into these waters is prevented.

☆

THE NEW LICENSE will be valid for the calendar year at an annual fee of $5. Applications can be obtained now from the Department.

One result of the new law is that landowners will be able to purchase game fish for stocking farm ponds.

An increase in the number of farm ponds in the state is anticipated, due to federal financial aid available to farmers for pond construction under the Conservation Reserve Program of the Soil Bank Act.

The Maples Farm Bureau Group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stockinger, Wednesday evening. A Christmas turkey dinner, with all the trimmings, was served to 20 people. After a short business meeting, presided over by Mr. Harold Every, the discussion on "Safety on the Highways" was led by Lester Munger. The conclusion was that parents should teach safety to children driving tractors on a highway. It was suggested farmers keep fence corners clear so they will not obstruct the view of motorists. The evening ended with group singing of Christmas carols and everyone received a gift from under the tree.

Bashore Plan Will Save $3,000

A plan, which will save Lenawee county $3,000 annually, was adopted by the county welfare commission.

The idea, proposed by Rev. B. O. Bashore of Tecumseh, involves having three instead of nineteen welfare investigators in the county, working from township to township.

Rev. Bashore was a county supervisor, but resigned to join the welfare board.
